The American Numismatic Association, an educational and nonprofit organization, is the largest and most active numismatic body in the world. It invites and welcomes to membership all worthy persons eleven years of age or over, who have a sincere interest in numismatics, whether they collect coins, paper money, tokens or medals, whether advanced collectors or those only generally interested in the subject without being collectors. The association was founded in 1891, and has about 28,000 members from every state in the Union and many foreign countries. It was chartered for fifty years by Act of Congress May 9, 1912; renewed in perpetuity by Act of Congress April 10, 1962 and is a mutual organization for the benefit of its members.

All Association members, except Associate, receive the official publication, The Numismatist, without cost other than their annual dues. Membership applications should be accompanied by $13.00 to cover admittance fee and the first year's dues. Succeeding annual dues are $8.00. Non-member subscriptions, $10.00 per year. Single copy $1.00. For application blanks or other information, write to Executive Director, P.O. Box 2366, Colorado Springs, Colo. 80901.

The Numismatist is an illustrated monthly which has been issued continuously since its founding in 1888. It consists of 176 pages or more in each number with subscribers in about sixty countries. Advertising inquiries should be sent to the Advertising Manager. All other matters for possible publication in or concerning The Numismatist are to be forwarded to the Editor. By Nancy Rochette Sculptor — deft fingers pushing, pulling — nudging precise details into clay. Conforming the MODEL to the idea.

Child — spontaneous outburst of innocence — scuffling to clutch his untainted truth.

"I think a picture of the world with the words "WORLD UNITED" should be on the front instead of the white house or something like that. The foreign countries would feel that it belonged to them so instead of having to trade your american money in for foreign, they would feel that it was theirs cause it had a picture of the world on it. Not just something you find in Washington D. C. or something."

During a creative writing program at Pine Valley Elementary School, children in grades one through six were asked for their ideas concerning design changes on the 1976 dollar, half dollar and quarter.

They have answered with imagination and sincerity, proclaiming images and ideas the sculptors never dreamed of . . . yet bursting forth some of the same ideas (with a few thoughtful modifications).

What I think would look good on the back of a quarter

I think that a lake with mountains in the background and have an eagle on top of the highest peak of the mountains.

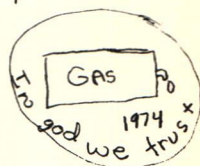

I would put a dinosaur on the back because they have been around a long time and so have coins so I think I would put a dinosaur that's my pnyone

I think you should put the Statue of Liberty on it that doesn't fit so put the Golden Gate Bridge

I think that they should put the same thing because a quarter is a quarter

As far as I know there is an energy crisis so there is my idea I think that we should have a gas can on its side with a drop coming out.

I think that the quarter should have picture of a lady this time because every other quarter has either a bird or a man so a woman may be a change from the man and eagle

If they change the back of a quarter from an eagle to something else it would be very interesting if they could put an owl on it. I would like to see an owl on the back of a quarter because it would be a change that much from the eagle. It would represent wisdom.

I think that a picture of the Statue of Liberty is good. She is holding the torch.

I would like a picture of John F. Kennedy is good cus he was the best president of all of them

John F. Kennedy

Or else a ring of people all different classes.

What should go on the back of a quarter?

The children were extremely aware of patriotic symbols; the Liberty Bell, the eagle, the Statue of Liberty; most of all, the U. S. flag. The children seemed to perceive it as the ultimate symbol of strength and glory, security and freedom.

What should you put on the back of the coin?

You should put a Flag the U.S. Flag. Because it stood up in the war.

I think that the back of the quarter should have an it. (like the flag) not like it but I think that you will.

We should "put," "Smile," "God loves you." Or we could put, "Spend Me Wisely," or "Take it or Leave it, America."

I've heard that in 1976 there going to change the the backs of the quarter and half-dollar. Well, I have an ideal, we might put the United States Flag with the words "In god we trust" on the love, by neighbor on the bottom for the quarter.

What to put on the back of a quarter I think we should put a 1776 flag on the back of the quarter.

From the Master. I would put a American flag on the back to symbolize we are free.

Noice 7

I think that they should put our country's flag on the back of the quarter and let everyone admire it. Americans should see their flag more often.

Pine Valley Elementary School is located at the U. S. Air Force Academy near Colorado Springs, Colorado. Roger L. Thorson, principal, initiated a sustained writing program two years ago in hopes that "by allowing children to practice using the skill of writing in creative expression at a regular time, their proficiency should be enhanced."

Using the school's intercom, Thorson gives the children writing assignments twice weekly. The assignments range from hypothetical situations (Suppose your dog had six legs. What could he do with the other two?) to merely describing something; electricity, a snowflake, etc. Upon the suggestion of the editorial secretary for The Numismatist, he explained the change on our coinage for the bicentennial and asked for their ideas. We would like to thank Mr. Thorson and the children of Pine Valley Elementary School for their delightful and enlightening suggestions.

I would put how much it is worth.

Maybe we should listen to them more closely!

A revolutionary war soldier, a moon buggy, the Liberty Bell, flags, maps, the war sloop RANGER and Independence Hall are among the design motifs which may appear on three coins celebrating our Bicentennial, Mrs. Mary Brooks, Director of the Mint, announced.

From among some 1,000 entries submitted in the National Bicentennial Competition for new reverse designs for the dollar, half dollar and quarter dollar, 12 have been selected by the competition judges to be rendered into plaster form.

Mr. Robert Weinman, President of the National Sculpture Society and chairman of the competition panel of judges, notified the 12 semi-finalists of the selection of their sketches to be given further judging when received in plaster relief models. Plaster models must be submitted to the U. S. Mint in Philadelphia, Pa. On receipt, the Treasury Department will purchase for the sum of $750.00 each, those plaster models that meet the competition guidelines.

The nationwide competition for designs emblematic of the Bicentennial of the American Revolution is being conducted in honor of the milestone anniversary of American Independence. In the final phase of the competition, from a selection of not more than six plaster models, three new designs will be chosen for the reverse of the dollar, half dollar, and quarter dollar. Each winning designer will be given an award of $5,000 by the Treasury Department. The winning designer must agree to make any revisions required by the Director of the Mint in preparing the final coinage model and agree to provide necessary technical service in the production of the dies at the United States Mint at Philadelphia. Necessary expenses will be paid. At that time, the winning designer's initials will be incorporated into his design. The double date 1776-1976 will appear on the front of the three Bicentennial coins.

FROM YOUR PRESIDENT

VIRGINIA CULVER

The upcoming Bicentennial of our country's independence is drawing closer at hand and its celebration should affect every person in the United States. Coin collectors all over the world are going to be able to add specimens to their collections that will mark this commemoration.

It was a rare privilege for me to be able to view the submitted entries for our coinage change at the Philadelphia Mint in January. History was being made as the five eminent judges reviewed the almost 1000 entries. It was intriguing to see the varied submissions of the artists, knowing these were their interpretations of our country's birthday. In many, one could see the similarity of design that had been used before on either our coinage or on various tokens and medals. On some, one wondered just what connection the theme would have with our Bicentennial.

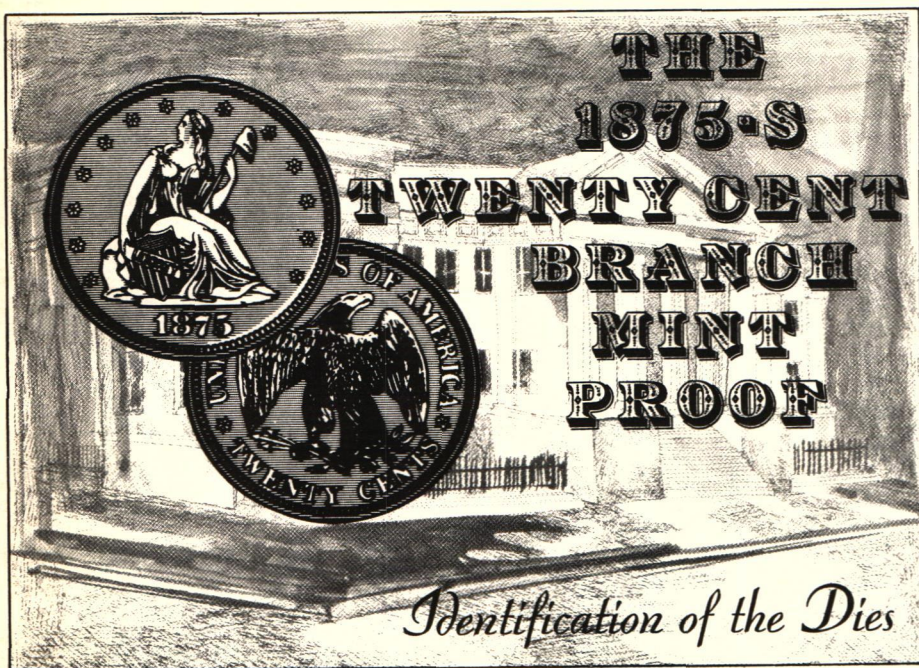

In choosing the semi-finalists, the judges not only had to consider the design, but if it would be effective when struck on the reverse of one of our coins. Our Mint Director, Mrs. Mary Brooks, is certainly to be commended for the interest she stimulated across this country for the almost 1000 entries.

On behalf of our association I attended the retirement dinner for Mr. Joseph M. Segel held at The Franklin Institute on January 9. It is not often that we have the chance to express our tribute to someone whose success is so outstanding, and who is going into another endeavor. However, if the past is any indication, we know what the future will hold. Our association is indeed enhanced greatly by having had Joseph M. Segel in the numismatic field.

The time is drawing near when each and every one of us should proclaim our interest in coin collecting. National Coin Week will be held the third full week of April, the 21st through the 27th. This National Coin Week should be a special one as it is the Golden Anniversary of this event. The idea was first tried in 1923, but our association adopted National Coin Week as its own in 1924, and it has been held continuously since that time. All of us can do much in this endeavor and make it one of the very best. A Golden Anniversary comes but once!

TWENTY CENTS . . . this short lived series with only five regular circulation issues and four proofs, including two proof only date, normally listed, contains two of the rarest regular die coins in the entire U.S. series.

The first, known to every collector, is the 1876-CC twenty cent piece with approximately a dozen specimens known. The second, which most collectors have never heard of, is the 1875-S twenty cent Branch Mint Proof. So far as is known, only three specimens exist.

Don Taxay, in Scott's Comprehensive Catalog, lists the piece as probably being the first struck of this denomination at the San Francisco Mint. In any case they were probably given to mint officials and special visitors and thus, those pieces that survived probably took two or three generations to enter the numismatic arena. Max Mehl in selling a piece to Gaylord, the Springfield, Massachusetts, collector, in 1931 passed along the information that twelve pieces had been struck.

For many years only two pieces have been known. Recently a third example was discovered and two of these have been brought together for comparison of the dies. One of the pieces shows field damage from contact with other coins and has been rather poorly cleaned. The second piece shows only the slightest damage and has been taken care of in good fashion.

The proof quality of both of the coins at hand display the typical proof qualities. They have broad flat rims (.9mm wide), clearly defined denticles, polished fields, sharp delineation of the devices and square edges with partial wire extrusion.

There are two deviations. Apparently the planchets were not fully polished; both pieces show rolling striations which are parallel on the two sides of the coin. This effect is often seen on Stella ($4 gold) proofs; Also, the devices are more typically BU with mint frost finish than the typical finely frosted finish of the best Philadelphia proofs. Both of these deviations could be expected if the purpose in mind was to produce a few presentation pieces.

IDENTIFICATION OF THE DIES

In the interest of positive identification of any other surviving specimens of this rarity, photographs are offered here of the die faults which are common to the two pieces in question.

Fig. 1: Three horizontal scratches are seen (arrows) in the bars of the shield on the obverse.

Obverse

The first two figures illustrate two portions of the obverse. Within the central vertical bars of the shield there are three prominent horizontal scratches on the die which show as raised lines on the coin (Fig. 1). On the left there is a die scratch parallel with the lower edge and up from the base of the bar about one third of its length. The other two are located at the base of the center most bar, within the lower third, from the tip of the shield.

There is also a small triangular die chip attached to the left side of the staff and just below the hand about the distance of another finger and slightly smaller than the little finger (Fig. 2).

Fig. 2: Also on the obverse, a small triangular die chip (arrow) is evident near the staff just below hand.

Reverse

The following two figures illustrate two portions of the reverse. In the small area between the claws and the arrow shaft located directly above the mint mark there is a die scratch resulting in a raised line running diagonally from a point midway between the eagle's claws down to the juncture of the feather with the shaft (Fig. 3).

Fig. 3: Indicated by the arrow, a small scratch appears below and to the right of the eagle's claw on the reverse.

In the word "CENTS" the die has been so deeply polished that the lower serif of the "S" is completely separated from the remainder of the letter. Likewise, the upper left bar of the "T" is slightly separated from the stalk of the letter (Fig. 4).

Perhaps the most distinctive feature of all is a light die scratch resulting in a thin raised line running from the tip of the leaf immediately above the "T" to the top of the letter "S" (Fig. 4).

The reverse die also has file marks or "spines" extending vertically down from the juncture of the eagle's right wing to the body, not shown.

Fig. 4: Separation of the "S" and a scratch from the leaf to the "S" (arrows) are also evident on the reverse.

A Special Ceremony?

A comprehensive search of the San Francisco newspapers for the year 1875 was made to determine if there was any mention of a special ceremony at which these pieces might have been struck or a presentation made. No mention was made of such a ceremony but other information of interest was found.

April 16, Examiner, page 3: A datelined District of Columbia story saying the twenty cent design had been approved.

May 20, Examiner, page 2: "Coinage of the twenty cent piece started at Philadelphia yesterday. Dies were sent to the mints at Carson City and San Francisco; coinage there to start at once."

June 4, Chronicle, page 7: Reprinted from the New York Times, an article entitled, "California Gets Her Twenty Cent Piece," it was concerned with the making of change between dimes and quarters and the western use of the "bit" and "two-bits."

June 4, Evening Bulletin, page 3: "Samples of the new twenty cent coin were received in this city this morning from the Carson City mint. The officers of that mint were anxious to make the first coin of that description on the Pacific coast, and, accordingly, everything was in readiness for the arrival of the dies from Washington. The first coins were struck on the first of June (a Tuesday). The new coin has heretofore been minutely described. It is, of course, a little smaller than the quarter dollar and has the words "TWENTY CENTS" in place of the words "QUAR. DOL."; otherwise there is but little difference in the appearance of the two coins. Some care will be necessary in receiving change not to take them for more than their face value. The new coin has a clean look and was, probably, made from Consolidated Virginia bullion."

June 17, Chronicle, page 2: Carson City mint purchased $1,500,000 in silver bullion from Consolidated Virginia for coinage of "trade dollars, fifty cent, twenty-five cent, and twenty cent pieces."

August 28, Examiner: The Bank of California has failed, there was a run on the banks with depositors drawing their money and demanding gold. Mint concentrating on gold coins. Also an article on the sudden death by drowning of William C. Ralston who was President of the Bank of California.

September 7, Examiner, page 1: New York dateline, the San Francisco Mint has been directed to stop production of silver and concentrate on gold coins, this is an aftermath of the Bank of California failure.

From the Mint Reports which were also published monthly in the papers, it was found that the production of twenty cent pieces at San Francisco started the third or fourth of June and ran only into September with no pieces being made in the last quarter of the year.

One is also left with the impression that the people of California did not really care whether or not the twenty cent piece existed, they really wanted gold. The real demand for the "double-dime" and other fractional coins arose from a desire in Washington to replace the fractional paper currency which was still circulating.

•The author is indebted to Mr. Ward Smith for the comprehensive research of the San Francisco newspapers of 1875.

At the auction in conjunction with the Great Eastern Numismatic Association Convention in Philadelphia in late September 1973, the author had the opportunity to examine the third known example of this twenty cent Branch Mint Proof. Both obverse and reverse dies were the same as the pieces described above. The toning was darker on this third piece and it proved difficult to find a reflection that outlined the die scratch to the top of the "S" on the reverse. Thus, all of the three known examples are from the same pair of dies. At some future date when the Government makes the early mint records of San Francisco available for research, we may be able to learn the occasion of their striking.

FRENCH MINT NOTES AMERICAN OBSERVANCE

While American medal manufacturers are preoccupied with the forthcoming Bicentennial of Independence, the Paris Mint has issued an 81mm medal noting the 200th anniversary of the signing of the Constitution of the United States. Designed by Maurice Pouillard and struck in silver and bronze editions, the obverse depicts a heraldic eagle clutching a parchment scroll representing the Constitution and dated 17 September 1787. The reverse shows the 13 original Colonies identified in French. Further information on this and other medals issued by the Paris Mint can be obtained by writing directly to it at 11 quai de Conti, Paris VI, France.

MOTTOES AND LEGENDS AND HER MAJESTY'S COINS

by Laura Rieman
ANA 53454

DURING the Middle Ages the social contract consisted of two components: survival and servitude. The chain of servitude ran, simplistically, from the serf to the knight-lord, to the overlord, to the king. This system lasted for hundreds of years after the fall of the Roman Empire. It existed under Christendom and was the only unifying force in the chaos of medieval times. The Church was custodian of the written records available to Western man and, as a rule, only churchmen could read and write.

Engaged in close combat in those times, a warrior needed to know friend from foe. Without identification and in the heat of battle he might strike down one of his own comrades in arms. All were cloaked by the anonymity of armor. Another problem was establishment of the authenticity of documents when the masses of people were illiterate.

Heraldry was the ingenious answer to those problems. It provided a method of recognition and systematically did away with duplication. The coat of arms was embroidered on the knight's surcoat as well as appearing above the door of the house, embroidered on a flat or used as a documentary seal.

Splendid Latin mottoes and legends were adopted by noble houses, churchmen, and later, trade guilds. The aspirations expressed in these legends were often too high for men to attain but they did provide a goal. Latin was the language of heraldry because it was universal and the written language of the time.

These mottoes are still used today in various ways. Sometimes they are shown on coins. The Commonwealth of Nations with its British regal heritage often uses mottoes on its various coinages. In general, this article will be concerned with mottoes relating to the non-gold coinages of Elizabeth II.

Great Britain has traditionally shown certain Latin phrases on her coins. Such legends as DEI GRATIA (By The Grace Of God) and FIDEI DEFENSOR (Defender Of The Faith) are well known designators of Rex and Regina. Dei Gratia is often shown in full while Fidei Defensor is usually abbreviated to F. D. BRITANNIARUM OMNIA signifies that the sovereign is ruler of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, or The Britains. The second "T" in the abbreviation shows the plural meaning, i. e. Britt. Omn. These legends are also used by other Commonwealth countries.

Examples of royal legends on the coinage of Great Britain.

French is the language of the motto of the Order of the Garter: HONI SOIT QUI MAL Y PENSE (Evil Be To Him Who Evil Thinks). There are other translations but this is the one most often used. Edward III of England is said to have been dancing at a ball with the Countess of Salisbury when she lost her garter. The king picked it up and handed it to her. Fearing gossip, he is credited with making the famous remark. This motto is shown surrounding the conjoint royal coats of arms on the reverses of the 1972 Gibraltar twenty-five new pence crowns. The crowns commemorate the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of the Queen.

Gibraltar twenty-five new pence crown reverse of 1972 commemorating the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of the queen.

Great Britain's two new pence coin shows the badge of the Prince of Wales with his motto: ICH DIEN (I Serve). This is a six hundred year old Teutonic motto.

The British coronation crown of 1953 has an edge inscription bearing the quotation, FAITH AND TRUTH I WILL BEAR UNTO YOU. This is part of the coronation oath which has been taken by British monarchs for centuries.

One of the fascinating aspects of heraldry is that "V" was always used for the letter "U" because the former was easier to carve or incuse into metal and stone. The inscription used on coins of the Channel Islands of Guernsey reads: BALLIVIE INSVLE DEGERNEREVES (Bailiwick Island Of Guernsey). Of course these Islands were Norman possessions in medieval times. After the Norman Conquest, William the Conqueror moved to England and ruled his Islands from that country. They have remained a dependency of the British crown although they are geographically located near the coast of France. The Queen is ruler of the Bailiwick under the title of the Duke of Normandy. "Bailiwick" as used in English probably derives from the Ballivie of Guernsey and is a corruption of the old French for belle vie. Insvle comes from the Latin "insula" and Guernsey is the linguistic descendant of Gernereves.

Heraldry on reverse of Guernsey 4 doubles piece.

Fiji is the only country included in this article using a native language other than English to express its motto. The legends on the Fijian 1969 dollar and 1970 crown read:

REREVAKA NA KALOU KA DOKA NA TUI (Fear God And Honor The King-Queen). If you say this to yourself rapidly you can imagine that you too are a Fijian chieftain. Kalou means God and Tui is a word meaning both king and queen. The motto derives from that used on the Great Seal of Ratu Seru Cakobau, King of Fiji at the time of the cession of Fiji to Queen Victoria in 1874.

Coat of arms on Fijian dollar reverse.

We turn to the Bible for the motto of the Cayman Islands. It is from the Book of Psalms, chapter 24, verse 2: HE HATH FOUNDED IT UPON THE SEAS, a beautiful and poetic statement. It was selected in 1967 when the coat of arms was being designed, and appears on the Cayman five dollar coin. At the time the Government Advisory Council decided that the motto should be in English, and, with the assistance of the Reverend Arthur W. Saunders, the coat of arms and motto were registered. Mr. Saunders is pastor of the Methodist Church, Barbara Hill, St. Lucia, and is a member of the Heraldic Society.

Reverse of Cayman Islands five-dollar coin.

The old Bahamian maxim used on the modern five dollar coins of the Islands was EXPULSIS PIRATIS RESTITUTA COMMERCIA (Pirates Driven Away Commerce Restored). In the late 17th and early 18th centuries the Bahama Islands became a famous base for pirates. However, Captain Woodes Rodgers, the first Royal Governor, crushed the buccaneers, offering them a full pardon if they would cease and desist. He hanged several who refused amnesty and were caught in the act. Governor Rodgers brought orderly government to the Islands in 1718 and in 1728 the motto was adopted. However, it was officially recognized only in 1959.

FORWARD UPWARD ONWARD TOGETHER is the new motto of the Bahama Islands and is now used on the latest five dollar coins. The old motto having no relevance to modern Bahamian life, a national competition was held to select a new one. The competition was won by two eleven year old school children. The key word in the phrase is "Together" and is a manifestation of the Islanders' desire to move forward as one. The new legend is inscribed at the base of the new coat of arms which was assigned to the Islands by Royal Warrant and became effective December 7, 1971.

Bahamian coat of arms and new motto dominate reverse of 1972 five-dollar issue.

The Rhodesias have had a fascinating history and especially so to the numismatist. Founded by Cecil Rhodes, the territory's first official coinage was that of Southern Rhodesia. Formation of the Central African Federation brought the coinage of Rhodesia and Nyasaland. Now each of the members of the obsolete Federation; Rhodesia, Zambia and Malawi, has its own coins. The Rt. Hon. Sir Roy Welensky, K.C.M.G. was the prime minister of the Federation. He has sent a record from the Cabinet minutes regarding the Federation's motto.

Federal coat of arms on half crown reverse of Rhodesia and Nyasaland issue.

"The Federal coat of arms was first discussed in 1953 at a meeting of the interim cabinet. It was agreed that a committee might be formed, with Professor Rollo of the Rhodesian University as a member, to which the public could submit suggestions for a motto . . . The first question the committee considered was whether the chosen motto should be in Latin or English. It was noted that English, the official language of the Federation, would impart greater meaning to the peoples of the country than Latin, which by then was a declining language in the schools. Latin, on the other hand, was the traditional language of heraldry . . . The committee accordingly submitted to the cabinet early in 1954, three mottoes in each language: CARITAS IN OMNES (Good Feeling Towards All), FIDE FOEDERATA (Federated In Faith), PRO OMINIUM SALUTE (For The Welfare of All), OUT OF VISION REALITY, OF ONE COMPANY, and FEDERATED IN FAITH."

"An additional suggestion was received from G. H. Baxter of the Commonwealth Relations office. This was MAGNI ESSE MERIAMUS (Let Us Deserve To Be Great) . . . Mr. Baxter's suggestion was accepted by the cabinet and the British Government was informed of this decision. Later it was decided that MERIAMUS was more correct than MERIAMUR." MAGNI ESSE MERIAMUR appears on the half-crown of Rhodesia and Nyasaland, one of the most beautifully designed coins in any collection of the Queen's money.

Southern Rhodesia's crown of 1953 honored both the Queen in her coronation year and the centennial year of the birth of Cecil Rhodes. It carries the edge inscription: OUT OF VISION CAME REALITY. Sir Roy Welensky tells us that the most famous saying attributed to Mr. Rhodes is his "equal rights for all civilized men." This clearly indicates that he did not believe in any race barrier in regard to the people of his country, but that he did in fact support merit as the criterion. This singles him out from many of the Empire Builders.

Sir Roy continues with an anecdote about Mr. Rhodes: "I don't have to remind you that he died seventy-one years ago, so there are not many people around today who actually saw him alive. I can remember my elder brother Dave telling me that in 1895 or 1896 he won a race at some sporting event in Bulawayo — it might even have been during the Rebellion of 1896. At the end of the race he was given a prize by Mr. Rhodes who put him on his knee while he talked to him."

The Seychelles Colony Badge uses the motto FINIS CORONAT OPUS (The End Crowns The Work or The Deed Crowns The Labor). The cases of the recent specimen sets of coins for these Indian Ocean Islands are inscribed with the motto. The 1972 five rupees shows the Badge on its reverse. The Badge is based on a buckle designed by General Charles George "Chinese" Gordon who visited the Seychelles in 1880 — about four years before he was speared to death by Mahdists on the palace steps of Khartoum. The buckle depicted the Coco-de-Mer tree, a tortoise, and a schooner. General Gordon loved the Bible and read it daily. He maintained that the Coco-de-Mer palm was the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil mentioned in the Bible in the Book of Genesis, chapter 2, verse 9. He further maintained that Praslin, the only island on which it grows, was the Garden of Eden. The maxim comes down from antiquity. Horace, Ovid, Virgil, and the Gesta Romanorum all have this sentiment in either the same or similar words. Shakespeare also uses it in Troilus and Cressida 4. V. 224.

The original arms of Bermuda with the motto QUO FATA FERUNT (Where The Fates Will) were granted to the Bermudas or Somers Island Company which was chartered by King James I in 1615. The earliest known use of the device may be seen in the frontispiece of a book in the Bermuda Library entitled "Laws of the Bermuda Company," printed in 1622. After the charter became forfeit to the Crown in 1684 and the administration of the colony was entrusted to the sovereign's appointees, the latter used a Public Seal consisting of the Royal Arms in various modifications of design. This continued until 1833 when a new Public Seal was sent out from London bearing the device of a graving dock with ships. Informed critics averred that two of the ships were sailing in opposite directions although their yards were set to sail in the same direction. Authority was eventually granted, by Royal Warrant dated 4th October, 1910, for the use of armorial ensigns designed by G. Ambrose Lee, York Herald, similar to the arms originally granted to the Bermudas or Somers Island Company. QUO FATA FERUNT was taken from Virgil's Aeneid, book 3, line 7. This passage was an appropriate context describing how Aeneas and his party set forth to find a new settlement in an unknown land. Of course the corollary to Aeneas was the manner in which Bermuda was settled. The Sea Venture was carrying colonists to Virginia when she was wrecked off Bermuda in a storm on July 28, 1609. The colony was called Somers Island for a time, in honor of Admiral Sir George Somers, captain of the Sea Venture. Two passengers elected to remain in Bermuda and became the colony's first white settlers. The coat of arms and motto are shown on the 1964 crown and the current fifty cents.

Bermuda's coat of arms and fifty-cent reverse.

Bermuda's coat of arms and motto are now under slight controversy. A Bermudian heraldry enthusiast, Mr. Ted Burton, argues that the coat of arms of the Bermuda Company should have been used rather than the seal. Mr. Burton has found the coat of arms in the files of the College of Arms in London. In heraldic language, the description of the arms reads "Argent, a ship in a wrought sea wrecked between two rocks, all proper. And for the crest — upon a helme and a torce of argent and gules a boar on a mount between two palmetto trees proper as also, two tritons for their supporters." The motto which goes with this coat of arms is PERIISIMUS NISI PERIISIMUS (We Should Have Perished, Had We Not Preserved). The author consulted with a language expert who feels that this translation might better be: We Should Have Perished Had We Not Gone (on) Through.

The Caribbean island of Jamaica formerly used a motto which was very "Empire." INDUS UTERQUE SERVIET UNI vowed that Both The Indies Shall Serve One. This referred to India in Asia and to the West Indies. The "One" was the British Empire. Presently Jamaica has changed her motto to the more relevant OUT OF MANY ONE PEOPLE. The old motto was used on the penny and half penny until 1964. The new motto was used on these coins after 1964 and on the 1966 five shillings. Jamaica no longer uses regal coinage.

The old and new coat of arms and motto of Jamaica.

British Columbia, Canada, has a magnificent coat of arms. Following is a description in heraldic terms sent by the Deputy Provincial Secretary. Arms — Argent three bars wavy azure, issuant from the base a demi sun in splendour proper, on a chief the Union Device charged in the centre point with an antique crown Or. Crest — Upon an Imperial Crown proper, a lion statant gardant Imperially crowned, all Or. Supporters — Dexter a Wapiti Stag, proper. Sinister, a ram of the Ovis Montana, proper. Motto — SPLENDOR SINE OCCASU. The Secretary says that the motto cannot be translated literally but can be interpreted as Splendor Never Ending or Splendor Without Diminishment. The legend was used on Canada's 1971 silver dollar.

The British Columbia coat of arms.

The motto of the Isle of Man is QUOCUNQUE JECERIS STABIT (It Will Stand Wheresoever You Throw It). This inscription appears on the 1965 gold issue of the Isle and on the case of the 1972 proof crown. It is an appropriate legend to accompany the armorial device of the Manxmen which is the triskele or Three Legs of Man.

The famous Three Legs device seems to have been adopted in the thirteenth century as the armorial bearings of the native kings of the Isle of Man. After 1266 when the native dynasty ended, the emblem was retained. The earliest firmly dated example occurs in an heraldic roll of 1275. The device appears on the Manx Sword of State made circa 1300 A. D. It is used today on the official Manx flag.

Why the Three Legs were adopted as the royal arms is unknown. Many heraldic emblems had no meaning whatever and were chosen merely because they were distinctive. The triskele is related to the cross and swastika and all go far back into pagan times. It was originally a symbol of the sun. In ancient times the emblem was particularly connected with the island of Sicily (probably because of its triangular outline) but the Sicilian "legs" were always naked and generally displayed Medusa's head at the central point. The Manx Legs are armored.

Motto and arms of the Isle of Man.

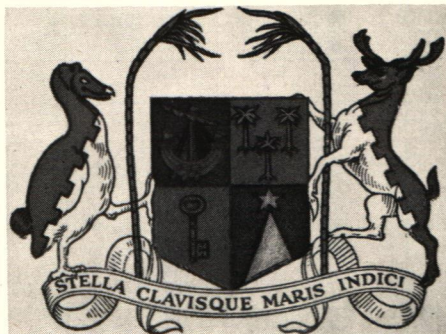

A rather similar device was popular amongst the Norsemen. The simplified triskele was used on coins of the tenth century Norse king, Anlaf Cuaran, whose dominion included Dublin and the Isle of Man; and it is probable that the later Manx kings were a branch of the same dynasty. Some folk tales expressly connect Manannan, the Celtic Sea God with the Three Legs, or a fiery wheel. Manannan is supposed to have lived on the Isle of Man. However, these tales are not early in their present form, and may have been invented after the adoption of the Island's heraldic emblem in the thirteenth century.

The motto QUOCUNQUE JECERIS STABIT first appears (with Gesseris used for Jeceris) on the earliest known Manx coinage, the so-called Murrey pence of 1668. This was a private token coinage issued by John Murrey, a local merchant, but was made the first official legal tender by an order of the Governor's Council, confirmed by an Act of Tynwald, the Manx parliament, in 1679.

All of the early examples of the Manx Legs show them as if running sunwise and to that extent the heraldic symbol still retained an essential feature of the ancient pagan sun symbol. Although sometimes drawn antisunwise, this is singularly inappropriate. Elizabeth II is ruler of the Island as the Lord of Man.

The intriguing motto of the Indian Ocean island of Mauritius is STELLA CLAVISQUE MARIS INDICI (Star And Key Of The Indian Sea). The coat of arms was designed by a Miss Lane, niece of the Colony's governor, Sir Cavendish Boyle, in 1905-06. The supporters are the extinct dodo bird and a deer. The dodo has been extinct since the late seventeenth century, but formerly inhabited the Island. The coat of arms was authorized by the Arms and motto of the Indian Ocean island of Mauritius.

British Colonial Secretary in a letter from the king's secretary dated 25th August 1906, to the College of Arms. This was King Edward VII. Arms were granted in December of that year. The Island was uninhabited when settled by the Dutch in 1598. They named it for Prince Maurice of Nassau. The French then took it over and held it until the war between France and England at the beginning of the nineteenth century. It was a base for attacks on English Indiamen and other vessels and was indeed a key to the Indian Sea. Great Britain conquered it in 1810 to stop the attacks, and has since held it until its independence. The motto appears on the case of the 1971 proof set of the Island, and the dodo bird is shown on the ten rupee coin.

Shield from coat of arms used on reverse of the 1956 one rupee issue.

Gibraltar's motto is MONTIS IN-SIGNIA CALPE (The Sign Of Mt. Calpe). The Rock derives its name from a corruption of the Arabic Jabal al-Tarik (Mt. Tarik) so called in honor of Tarik ibn Zaid, the Muslim commander who captured it in 711. The Pillars of Hercules was the name given by the ancient Greeks to two rocks on either side of the Strait of Gibraltar. The rock on the European side — Gibraltar — was called Calpe. The African rock or mountain was known as Abyla. The Greeks believed that Hercules placed the rocks as limits beyond which it was not safe for seafarers to venture. Gibraltar was called Mons Calpe by the Romans and the African mountain was Mt. Acho. The Strait was called Fretum Herculeum or Strait of Hercules. It was the Ne Plus Ultra or No More Beyond, a warning to sailors to turn back. After the Moors had conquered the Rock they were in turn conquered by the Spanish. Under Spanish rule it was regarded throughout Europe as an impregnable fortress. Britain took it during the War of the Spanish Succession in 1704. The Gibraltarians are of Spanish, Italian, Maltese, and Portuguese descent and are strongly banded together in their loyalty to Britain. Only Gibraltarians may reside there by right, all others must have special permission. MONTIS IN-SIGNIA CALPE is inscribed on the cases of Gibraltar's proof crowns of 1967 and 1971.

Canada's motto A MARI USQUE AD MARE (From Sea To Sea) suggests the size and majesty of the country. The Chief of State Protocol has sent the history of the coat of arms and motto. "By Order of His Excellency the Governor General in Council, dated the 26th of March, 1919, a Committee was appointed for the purpose of inquiring and reporting upon the advisability of requesting His Majesty the King to assign Armorial Bearings to Canada. On the 20th of April, 1921, the Committee submitted to His Excellency the Governor General in Council the device which was subsequently approved by Royal Proclamation on 21st of November, 1921. The Latin motto appears below the shield on a blue scroll. This motto, A MARI USQUE AD MARE (From Sea to Sea) is alluding to the fact that Canada stretches from the Atlantic to the Pacific. It is taken from the Latin version of Psalm 72:8 -Et dominabitur a mari usque ad mare, et a flumine usque ad terminos orbis terrarum. In the Authorized Version the quotation reads: He shall have dominion also from sea to sea, and from the river unto the ends of the earth." The motto appears on the Canadian fifty cents.

The British Virgin Islands has issued a proof set of its coins, and on the encasement is the coat of arms and the motto VIGILATE.

The British Empire has become the Commonwealth of Nations, the decimal system has replaced sterling, and colonies have become republics. Since her coronation in 1953 the Queen's coinages have provided a history of many changes. Despite this, heraldry and its mottoes still provide a method of identification, the identification of Man with Ideas. MAGNI ESSE MERIAMUR, et al., deserve to be remembered.

CENTURY OLD NOTES

The Treasury Department have received advices from Pekin, China, that the new trade dollar of the United States has been assayed by the commissioner of the Chinese empire, and reported to be of more intrinsic value than the Mexican or Dutch dollars, which have been the standard coin among the Chinese for more than century, and an imperial edict has consequently been issued making the United States silver dollar a dollar for all the Chinese. The demand in this country for Mexican silver dollars to use in the China trade has sometimes been so great that they have sold higher than gold, and are now at par and a little better in San Francisco, being exported to China and Japan by every steamer. — Boston Daily Advertiser — American Journal of Numismatics, April, 1874. — American Journal of Numismatics, April, 1874.

virgil hancock's FEATURING FAKES

Wanta earn $200.00 effortlessly?

Just keep your eyes open for an Italy 20 Lire crown dated 1936... Yeoman No. 91... pictured above.

That's a counterfeit coin which a trusting Illinois collector bought, only to learn the thing's a fake... but he can't recapture his $550.00 without the coin, and it's been stolen.

Thus the $200.00 reward for this piece of silver worth less than two bucks.

This stolen fake has a peculiar, distinctive edge reeding, which I've tried to sketch here, greatly enlarged.

The ridges, shown above in white, are unusually narrow, with broad "slopes" (shaded in the sketch) down to the bottoms of the grooves which are indicated in black. As you can see, this fake's reeded edge is not the usual "cogwheel" reeding.

Also, on this coin's obverse there's a faint scratch (arrow) on the field running from the 1:00 o'clock direction down toward 7:00 o'clock, just in front of Vittorio's eyebrow, just touching the end of his nose, and stopping at his moustache.

Also on the obverse field, between the back of the king's neck and the letters "ER" of "IMPERATOR" are three tiny pits, placed in an almost vertical line, and with a very faint 4mm long hairline stretching left from the center pit.

On the reverse's field, vertically beneath the "AL" of "ITALIA" is a hairline or faint scratch. Another faint scratch is seen rising toward the rim from Miss Italy's right bicep.

If someone offers this coin to you, please hold onto the coin, and notify me . . . 0-713-667-8158 . . . muy pronto!

Item . . .

You'd think, after all the publicity these pages have given to the cast counterfeit 1894-S dimes being sold in the Philippines (see bottom page opposite), that no collector would buy one without first having it checked as to genuineness! But, last month, a fourth "pigeon" wrote excitedly that he'd bought one, hoping it'd be confirmed as being one of the 24 pieces the Red Book lists as having been coined.

Another Item . . .

At the top of this page is one more of the most frequently sold cast "pillar dollars" of Mexico, the 1740, ensayadores M.F. If, each time you saw a 1740 for sale, you'd probably make a profit if you'd bet it'd prove to be a fake . . . especially if it appeared on a pricelist from Southeast Asia!

Finally . . .

You see at the bottom of this page a silver concoction, offered at a breath-takingly high price as a 1789 Puerto Rican 2 reales proclamation piece of Carlos IV, just somebody's dream-child, just a concoction, unmasked with the aid of Edward Roehrs.

The obverse of this concoction shows a bust facing to your right, allegedly Spain's Carlos IV. The reverse, "1789" at 6:00 o'clock, the badge of Puerto Rico as the center device. Nope, there's no incused warning word "COPY."

GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY DAWNS FOR NATIONAL COIN WEEK APRIL 21-27, 1974

Hundreds of entries have poured into ANA headquarters with suggested slogans for the Golden Anniversary of National Coin Week contest. More than 1,000 entries were expected before the close of the contest and this year's winner will be designated "Honorary National Coin Week Chairman" and, in addition, will receive a special NCW plaque.

Members of the ANA Publications Committee will select the winner. There is stiff competition and it is pleasing to notice a large number of junior members participating in the contest.

As this is our Golden Anniversary of NCW, it is hoped that a presidential proclamation will be declared, which would annually designate the third week in April as "National Coin Week." Rep. Edward P. Roybals (D of California) has introduced a bill to this effect. This bill, H. J. Res. 737, needs our support. Congresswoman Leonor K. Sullivan of Missouri has pledged her support. Other similar bills have been introduced and it is imperative that all of us contact our congresswoman or Rep. Don Edwards (D of California), Chairman of the Judiciary Sub-Committee on Federal Charters, Holidays and Celebrations Committee, which has jurisdiction of this bill.

The NCW committee representing the numismatic press consists of Margo Russell, Coin World, P.O. Box 150, Sidney, OH 45365; Clifford Mishler, Numismatic News, Iola, WI 54945; Fred Green, Today's Coins, P.O. Box 919, Kermit, TX 79745.

In addition, the committee includes: Mrs. Irene Alexander, Spokane, WA; Harold Don Allen, Truro, Nova Scotia, Canada; Eliot Goldberg, West Roxbury, MA; Robert Medlar, Lubbock, TX and Thomas McAfee, Winter Park, FL.

Our Golden NCW Anniversary is an auspicious occasion and we hope that all individuals, coin clubs and regional organizations will participate to the fullest extent.

Maurice M. Gould, Chairman of NCW, Box 1500, Tustin, CA 92680, will be glad to receive your suggestions and assistance.

CENTURY OLD NOTES

The insurgents of Cartagena, Spain, are manufacturing large coins of silver money of the value of four shillings. On one side are stamped in a circle the words, "Cartagena besieged by the Centralists," and in the center, "September, 1873;" on the other side there are the words, "Five Pesetas — Revolution," and in the center, "Cantonal." — American Journal of Numismatics, October, 1874.

NEW & RECENT ISSUES

By Ernst Kraus, LM 129

It is the important duty of The Numismatist to record and illustrate new coins. To accomplish this, ANA members in the United States and abroad are invited to submit new issues to Ernst Kraus, Room 939 (include room number in address), 393 Seventh Ave., New York, N.Y. 10001. Coins will be photographed and returned as soon as possible, and a credit line will be given to anyone assisting.

Bangladesh

The sovereign independent people's republic of Bengla Desh was formed on March 25, 1971, and on the following day a full scale war erupted in East Pakistan. Finally on Dec. 16, 1971, India recognized the provisional government of Bengla Desh with the fall of Dacca to the Bengalis. Now an independent republic and a member of the Commonwealth of Nations, Bangladesh is bordered by India on the west, north, and east, by Burma in the southeast and by the Bay of Bengal in the south, totaling 55,000 square miles of area. It is reported that the country's new coins were minted by the German Democratic Republic (East Germany) at no cost other than the cost of the metal.

Denmark

"To be queen is a richer experience than I have ever dreamed of," said Queen Margrethe II at the first press conference ever to be given by a reigning monarch of the 1,000-year-old kingdom of Denmark. Queen Margrethe II (the first Margrethe was queen of Denmark, Norway, and Sweden from 1387 to 1412) succeeded to the throne on Jan 14, 1972, on the death of her father, King Frederik IX. Denmark is a constitutional monarchy of north central Europe lying between the North and Baltic seas. Denmark includes the Jutland Peninsula and 100 inhabited islands in the Kattegat and Skagerrak straits. As is the custom, the portrait of the reigning monarch adorns these new issues. Queen Margrethe signed a Royal order on Nov. 12, 1973, approving these new designs and authorizing the new coinage for circulation.

India

India has added another contribution to the Food and Agriculture Organization's (FAO) Food Plan with the issuance of a fifty paise coin. This issue goes along with the ten and twenty rupee pieces described in The Numismatist, Jan. 1974. (See What Is An FAO Coin? The Numismatist, November 1973, p. 1989.)

William S. Carson
ANA 8005

Death came to William S. Carson in his home after a long illness. Born in Newark, Ohio, in 1892, Mr. Carson lived in Oberlin, Ohio, before moving to Detroit in 1944. Upon retirement in 1962, he returned once again to Oberlin.

William joined the ANA in April, 1940, and received his 25 year ANA silver membership medal in 1965. Mr. Carson is survived by his widow, Olive, one son, three daughters, thirteen grandchildren and eighteen great grandchildren. — OC

Sol Kaplan
ANA LM 97

Sol Kaplan, 74, a colorful, dedicated and legendary professional numismatist, died in a Cincinnati hospital on Thursday, January 31, 1974, following a second and massive stroke suffered earlier. A native of Odessa, Russia, he was born December 24, 1899.

Abe Kosoff, a long time friend and frequent business colleague, was with the Kaplan family at the time of Mr. Kaplan's death. He had come to Cincinnati from his home in California on January 30 upon learning of Sol's illness.

Millions of dollars of rare numismatic material flowed through his hands as he conducted his business in Ohio and acted as agent for the nation's top collectors, including the DuPonts.

Mr. Kaplan recognized early the responsibility of maintaining high degrees of ethics by professional numismatists. He helped found the Professional Numismatists Guild, Inc. (PNG). At the time of his death he was serving that group as a director. Also, he had served PNG after its founding in several official capacities, including, president, executive vice president and secretary.

He founded and acted as managing director of the Lewis M. Reagan Memorial Foundation, Inc. in 1962, a non-profit organization to perpetuate the memory and ideals of Lewis M. Reagan, ANA executive secretary from 1944 to 1961.

Mr. Kaplan joined ANA in 1940 (R8118) and in 1942 was chairman of the ANA Convention in Cincinnati. He also arranged for the Penn-Ohio Coin Club and Central States Numismatic Society conventions in that city.

An associate member of the American Numismatic Society and the International Association of Professional Numismatists, he held memberships in nearly thirty other numismatic organizations. In 1961 he was honored by the Cincinnati Numismatic Association for twenty years of service, during which time he served as president for three terms and as an officer for two decades. He was a member since 1939.

He was also a member of the Cincinnati Club and Cuvier Press Club.

Sol was a life member of the CSNS, a member of the board of governors for six terms and received the CSNS Medal of Merit in 1962.

In 1960 Mr. Kaplan was one of the key figures in the presentation of the famed Mikhailovitch Collection of Russian coins and medals by the Dupont family to the Smithsonian Institution in Washington.

His business prowess and enterprising started at age 13 as a stock broker. Later, his business associations included at one time president, National Coin Exchange & Markets, Inc.; president, Losama Corp.; president, Philomatic Trading Co.; president, Cincinnati Merchants Warehouse Assoc. and executive vice president of the C & H Gravel Co.

Mr. Kaplan was in much demand as a numismatic consultant and lecturer and conducted classes at Xavier, Cincinnati and Purdue Universities.

He is survived by his wife, Vivian, their daughter, two daughters by a former marriage and four grandchildren. — CW

Clemence J. Thomann
ANA 73300

Clemence (Clem) J. Thomann died on December 20, 1973, while operating his automobile in Chalmette, LA. A native of New Orleans, he had lived in Chalmette for the past three years.

Clem was chairman of the medals and ribbon committee for the 1972 New Orleans ANA Convention. He was a charter member and president of the Gentilly Coin Club. He is survived by his widow, one daughter and three grandchildren. — CP

•FREUD•

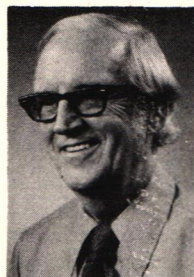

LATEST MEDICINE ISSUE

Sigmund Freud, Austrian physician and psychoanalyst and one of the most controversial and influential doctors of the twentieth century, is commemorated on the 45th issue in the Great Men of Medicine art medal series. The Freud medal, as well as the other issues in the series, is the work of the noted sculptor, Abram Belskie. Each medal in this series measures one and three-quarter inches in diameter and is multi-struck in high relief by the Medallic Art Company. Unnumbered bronze editions are priced at $5.00 each and the silver issue, serially numbered and limited to 5,000 pieces, is priced at $20.85 each, postpaid. Medals can be ordered from Presidential Art Medals, Inc., 300 West National Road, Vandalia, Ohio 45377.

Numismatic Vignettes

• ANA headquarters receives dozens of inquiries each week about the association and how the writers may become members. From these inquiries come many of the applications that are published each month under the heading "Membership Report" in The Numismatist. Now and then one of the letters is worded amusingly to those who are familiar with the ANA and its operations. Here are a few examples:

"Right now I'm eleven, in April '74 I'll be 12." Signed, "Your fellow Coin Man."

"Please send me information concerning joining your organization, dates of conventions and flea markets." (An adult)

"Could you please send me some information on how to start a coin collection. I am 9 years old and I am in the 3rd grade." Signed, "Miss Elizabeth"

"I would like to become a member of your company. I am trying my best to get rich, but I am having a hard time with my coin collecting..... I need HELP!" (This letter was not signed, dated, nor did it contain the writer's address but Janet saved the envelope when she opened that day's mail. Maybe someday the young man can tell us all how "to get rich" by collecting coins)

• In The Numismatist of September, 1901, then Secretary Geo. F. Heath (the good doctor seems always to have abbreviated his first name) signed a half-page item under the caption "What They Collect." The collecting interests of seven members were noted. G. Henry Shearer (mem. no.

269) was "interested in old Broken Broken Bank monies, especially Michigan (he lived in Bay City) and Northern State, but collects all kinks (sic) of paper money."

The ANA was an almost intimate group of less than 300 members in 1901, of which 17 attended the August convention in Buffalo, and 27 others were represented by proxies. Dr. Heath, who founded The Numismatist in 1888 and was its owner and editor until his death in 1908, used some of its pages to promote the fledgling ANA.

Shortly after Dr. Heath's death, then President Farran Zerbe bought The Numismatist from the doctor's heirs and became its editor and publisher. Some two years later, when Zerbe wished to be relieved of the magazine, then Vice President Wm. W. C. Wilson of Montreal (ANA #899) bought the magazine from Zerbe and deeded it to the ANA. At the 1912 convention Honorary Membership was conferred upon Wilson in recognition of his generous service.

Thus the American Numismatic Association, 19 years after its formation, became the owner and publisher of The Numismatist with the January, 1911, issue. Dr. Heath's Vol 1, 6 issues, contained a total of 26 pages; Vol. 86 (1973), 12 issues, totalled 2450 pages, a 94-fold increase.

At age 86 (treat it with respect) Dr. Heath's brain-child, which has been our step-child for 64 years, is healthy and virile. N. Neil Harris, whose tenure begins with this issue, is the 13th to have his name on the masthead as editor. Let's give him our full support! — Glenn S.

Motion made and seconded, "... to proceed toward the construction of the new Museum of Modern Medallic Art at A.N.A. headquarters as promptly as possible." Approval: unanimous.

Thus the Board of Governors of the American Numismatic Association officially authorized one of the most significant and exciting plans since completion of the headquarters building in Colorado Springs in 1967. A dream of several years is soon to become a reality.

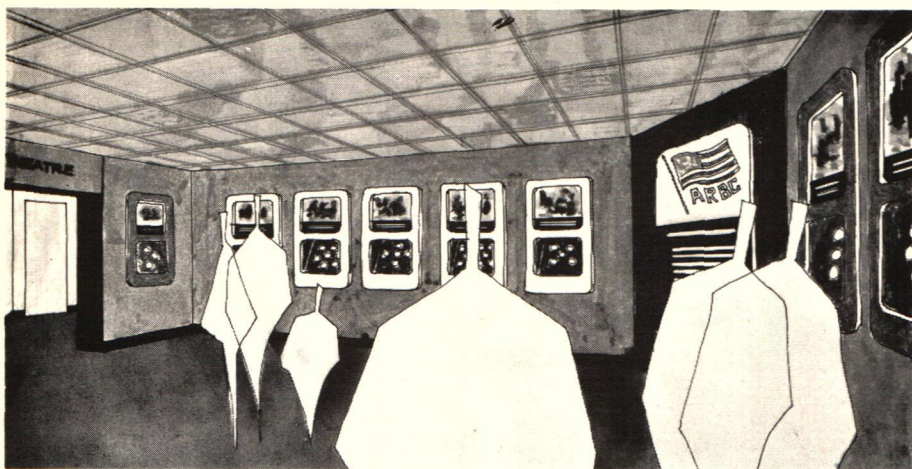

To be constructed in the capacious lower level of the headquarters building, the museum expansion will add nearly 2500 sq. feet of new display space, laid out in a series of galleries which flow smoothly from one to another. Also included will be a small theatre, with a capacity of 25 to 30 people, for the showing of films and slides. The plans call for ample aisles for efficient traffic flow, allowing for those who wish to linger in their study of one display, as well as those who prefer to proceed directly to a particular area.

Each gallery will consist of a fine balance of colorful graphic panels and detailed displays of coins and medals. These display cases vary in size to accommodate different series. In the first sequence of galleries, for example, there will be 47 vertically mounted displays, arranged topically under the general heading of "Modern Medallic Art." These will be topical displays, allowing maximum exposure of beautiful medallic art which heretofore has been given little exposure in the present museum.

The final two galleries, designated "Americana Gallery I & II," will contain 27 similarly mounted cases for permanent displays of American coins and medals. Included herein will be seven cases devoted to United States type coins exclusively, and five cases to the American Revolution Bicentennial Commission collection. The central portions of each of these galleries will be devoted to topical displays of Americana which may be changed periodically.

The ANA is most fortunate to have benefactors who have already provided much of the means by which this dream will be realized. Many of the cases in the Medallic Art galleries will be filled with the more than 2,000 modern coins and medals which are the continuing gift of the Joseph Segel family, and represent virtually the entire output of the Franklin Mint. Creation of the museum itself was stimulated by a further gift of 1,000 shares of Franklin Mint stock by the Segel family. Proceeds of this stock will pay a sizeable portion of the anticipated $100,000 construction and renovation cost. Thanks are also due to Tim Carter, also of the Franklin Mint, for the preliminary plans and designs which he prepared for approval by the Board of Governors.

Your museum cabinet already contains a fine collection of United States silver and copper coins. In the past year Stack's in New York has substantially enhanced the gold holdings, and nearly all types and mints are now represented. Two anonymous donors have, in recent months, added several of the more scarce dates and mints, as well as an 1852 Humbert $50 gold piece. Complementing these cases with displays of American medals from earlier donations to the ANA should create a stimulating and rewarding experience for the viewer.

The Board of Governors has proceeded with the plans for this major program fully confident that the costs of the project will be met without invading principal. It is from the generosity of many that the museum expansion has become feasible; it will be through the continuing generosity of interested members that the dream will be realized.

Bal Harbour is the host town for the 83rd ANA Anniversary Convention in August 1974, and as such, it joins 27 additional spokes in that giant tourist wheel known to the traveling world as Dade County. Some of you will wish to fan out a bit while attending the convention at the Americana Hotel.

•FOOD: Dade County offers 3,000 licensed dining establishments ranging from roadside fast-food franchises to cafeterias, "language food" restaurants, specialty houses and the very best in expensive restaurants. For fine seasonal specialties visit places featuring sea food. For fare that's native to Miami Beach, be sure to hit a Pumpernich's or Wolfie's and ask for beef flanken or chicken en pot. Then there's the rich variety of Spanish cooking. Miami's resident population of over 500,000 is now over half Spanish speaking, predominately Cuban . . . order a paella, it's great.

•SIGHTSEEING: There are more places to see and visit than there will be hours to see them during your stay at the ANA Convention. Try the man-made "jungles"; Parrot Jungle, Monkey Jungle or Orchid Jungle — each is worthwhile. Hop aboard a hydrofoil and zip over to Key Biscayne and tour the Sequarium, still the best of the trained porpoise and killer whale attractions, great for youngsters 4 to 74.

•TOURS: Any type of sea craft you can mention are at your beckoning; cruisers, showboats, cruise boats and low tops (to clear low bridges) are awaiting you. If not by the boatload, go by the busload; monitored audio trips, lecture trips, straight Metro transit or chauffeured limousines.

•FOR THE BUDGET MINDED: If the free-to-the-public offerings interest you, try the Bass Art Museum on Miami Beach or the Japanese Gardens on Watson Island (where you might head out on the post convention tour to the Bahamas). Go to Dodge Island, home of the cruise ships. Nearby is the Miamarina, the home of charter boats, sightseeing boats and an interesting restaurant. Also close is the Torch of Friendship, in Miami's Park.

A dawn or dusk trek to the top of a skyscraper can be spectacular. Take an early morning or evening stroll on South Miami Beach public pier which once housed Minsky's burlesque and played USO host to over a million service personnel throughout WW II.

For the sports minded, there's the Orange Bowl, home of the NFL world champion Miami Dolphins, victors of super bowls VII and VIII, and the University of Miami.

The Coral Gables, University of Miami campus, is impressive with its contemporary architecture. At Miami Shores you'll find, perhaps, the finest civic junior athletic physical plant in the United States is located, along with the staff to handle myriad functions, all paid for by profits from the city's golf course which is limited to residents.

One of the things Miami natives do religiously is to "tour the country." This is best done like you would quarter a piece of pie. You visit each quadrant every three months to see how many skyscrapers have been erected. To shortcut the process, take a drive through Coral Gables or Miami Shores, the supreme residential area of Miami Beach.

About six years ago the condominium phenomenon crept up on Miami Beach. Once open surf and sand and hotels of many sizes, now, Hallandale and Hollywood. You'll see the decades unfold. At the start you'll see the multi-mini hotels and apartments of the 20's and 30's, then the early 40's and 50's from 20th Street and past Arthur Godfrey Road where the Saxony's the past and wondrous hotels have been torn down to spawn still another condominium.

You will note that in the condominium caverns, sunlight is as scarce as a trip down New York's Wall Street. The true phenomenon is how the condominiums have come to dwarf the former landmarks such as the Eden Roc Hotel. Some are bigger than even the Americana and Diplomat Hotels, and bigger ones are on the way.

•FUN THINGS: There's golf; some of south Florida is now wall to wall putting greens. The Americana will have an assortment of golf privileges for you. How about an hour on a par 3 course right on Miami Beach? Go to Haulover Beach Park, preferably at night when the cool of the evening is upon you. Or, go to Hallandale behind the Diplomat West should the mini-mashie mania grab you.

These are but a few of the things you can do while in Bal Harbour. Dade County can double your usual convention amusement possibilities. Still left unmentioned are special entertainment ideas, such as night club tours — a best bargain bet. Visit the unique Villa Vizeaya, bathing in the ocean, which few do, and Lincoln Road to see nearly 100 fashionable shops . . . all for 15¢ each way on the tram cars (Atwood Fl 540 C).

Across from the Americana are a pair of musts; high ticket fashion and style mall, complete with the New York-type tea room and Nieman-Marcus, the Texas flair merchandiser. You know — where you buy his and hers helicopters.

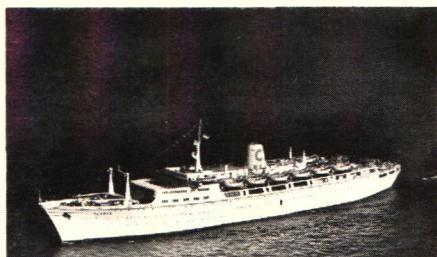

Left unsaid are the delights of Coconut Grove, the quaint and arty sector of Dade County. And girls, for something different look up Diamond's Novelties, the spot where the do-it-yourself kits are put together; sequins, velvet, beads, bangles, and baubles, plus balls, bells, bugles, braid, thread, throws and more. The ladies, too, will enjoy the Design Center, circa N.E. 2nd Avenue and 38th Street, offering several blocks of stores portraying almost everything pertinent to interior decorating plus its own fashionable restaurant.

Well, there's your off-site word tour. Actually, if this ANA Convention follows other conventions, most of your time will be spent right at the scene of the action, as it should be. And, a part of that programming will include optional tours. Information on these will come to you later. The ladies' day and lunch tour will be first rate. News of pre-registration packages will be forthcoming also. That's the spectrum. It is said you can spend three months in Miami Beach and do something different every day . . . you'll have to do it all in six.

CENTURY OLD NOTES

GOLD is the money the world over and paper is not the money the world over. Think it all over, with statements that it is, and still it is not money. The reason is plain. Paper has no inherent value. There is enough more where the last lot came from, and no man knows how much of it will be forthcoming. — American Journal of Numismatics, October, 1874.

Miami Conventioneers Bahamas Bound

Conventioneers attending the ANA Miami Convention can treat themselves to some genuine relaxation following the busy and hectic convention week via a cruise to the Bahamas.

The post-convention cruise to Nassau and Freeport aboard the T/S Flavia will depart on Monday, August 19 and return Friday, August 23. The itinerary includes:

Monday, August 19 — You will check in at Dodge Island between 2 and 4 P. M. for embarkation aboard the T/S Flavia. The ship will sail at 5:00 P. M.

Tuesday, August 20 — 8:00 A. M. — You will dock in downtown Nassau in the heart of Rawson Square just a few steps from the native Straw Market, the picturesque wharf, and the fabulous Bay Street, lined with quaint shops offering duty-free purchases from around the world. A numismatic seminar is also scheduled.

Wednesday, August 21 — A free day to enjoy the beauty and excitement of Nassau. A tour of the Treasury is also scheduled.

Thursday, August 22 — 5:00 A. M. the Flavia departs Nassau for a daylight cruise to Freeport, Grand Bahama Island. You will arrive in Freeport at noon, where our group will enjoy the excitement of the magnificent casino; the International Gagar, boasting duty-free shopping from around the world, or perhaps a sightseeing tour of the Freeport/Lucaya area.

Friday, August 23 — The Flavia will depart Freeport at 12:30 A. M., arriving in Miami at 8:00 A. M.

The T/S Flavia will act as your floating hotel throughout the trip, where you will enjoy five meals a day including breakfast, mid-morning snack, lunch, dinner and mid-night buffet. The ship offers a complete cruise program, nightly entertainment and dancing, as well as the gala Captain's Cocktail Party.

All of the preceding is included in the cost of $180.00 for an inside cabin and $210.00 for an outside cabin, plus $5.75 each for port taxes. The cost per person is based on double occupancy.

Early reservations are imperative due to limited space availability. There are no penalties for cancellations 72 hours prior to departure.

Deadline for reservations is April 15, 1974. Mail your reservation order with full payment to: Wyly's Travel Headquarters, 2795 Collins Ave., Miami Beach, FL 33140, ATTN: Group Department.

Hail to the Chief — Firefighter Gabarron

JOHN J.

GABARRON

Many an ANA member, especially those who attend conventions, knows the affable John J. Gabarron, our sergeant at arms and the man who is always on the job in the bourse. But how many know that this devoted member earned his bread and butter as a fire fighter?

Well, we know it now, and are proud of John who retired as Chief Fire Inspector of the Lincoln (Nebraska) Fire Department on January 2. Over 30 years ago, on August 1, 1943, he began his career as an ordinary fireman; he was promoted to Captain in 1959; to Fire Inspector 2 years later; to Drill Master in another 2 years; to Chief Training Officer in 1965; and finally to Chief Fire Inspector in March, 1969.

Local accounts at his retirement listed numerous seminars and schools on fire fighting that he has attended, and several related organizations of which he is a member. John is a quiet and modest man so stories of heroism were not in evidence.

So much for his vocation — what about his hobby career? He was the founder and first president of the Lincoln Coin Club which became ANA member 19266 in 1951. John joined the ANA the same year as member 19263, and became life member 279 four years later. He served as president of the Nebraska Numis. Assn., is an honorary member of several coin clubs and numismatic organizations, was a member of the U. S. Assay Commission in 1967, and head judge for the designs for his state's medal for the U. S. Bicentennial celebration. The ANA awarded its Medal of Merit to John in 1956.

Retiring at the youthful age of 55, will he "dry up on the vine?" Not at all likely. Already he is involved in consultant and investigative work for which his 30 years in fire fighting qualifies him. Numismatics will claim some of his time as a collector of Bryan money, Nebraska tokens, and coins of ancient Spain, Spain having been the homeland of some of his ancestors. And, we trust, his devotion to the ANA will not wane.

The accident of birthplace makes him a native of Texas but he has been a Nebraskan since babyhood. John served as ANA librarian from the fall of 1957 until the library was moved to headquarters on May 10, 1967. We'll never know how much of his excellent handling of our library should be credited to John and how much to his wife, Byrnadette (Bernie for short). In 1969 she was awarded the ANA Medal of Merit as well-deserved recognition for this work.

Surely every member wishes the Gabarrons many years of happiness and further accomplishment. And we're sure their son, John, their daughter, Jo Ann, and their six grandchildren join us in these good wishes. - Glenn S.

SUMMER SEMINAR — STUDY IN THE SUN SPONSORS WANTED FOR YN SCHOLARSHIPS

The Young Numismatist Committee is appealing for scholarships to the 1974 Summer Seminar in Colorado Springs so that deserving young numismatists may attend this educational activity.

Initiated last year, eight sponsors responded and paid the essential costs so that young collectors could attend the seminar. The sixth seminar is scheduled for July 7-13 and, as in the past, will be held in conjunction with Colorado College which, incidentally, is observing its 100th anniversary. All who attend the seminar will be housed in college dormitories and have their meals in its cafeteria. The exact amount of the fee has not been set but it probably will be around $145.

Whatever the exact cost, each scholarship should include the fee (six days and nights lodging, meals, tuition, regularly scheduled field trips) and tourist class air fare from the junior's home town to Colorado Springs and return. The average cost per student probably will be on the order of $350.

The eight scholarships for 1973 were provided by: Albert H. Wohlers & Co.,

Insurance; Coin Investments, Inc.; The Franklin Mint; A. Kosoff; Lewis M. Reagan Memorial Foundation; Numismatic News Weekly; Token and Medal Society and World-Wide Coin Investments, Ltd.

Since the contribution to sponsor a student to the ANA seminar is a donation to a nonprofit educational organization, the amount of it is deductible for Federal income tax purposes. The sponsors will be recognized by having their names published in The Numismatist and elsewhere.

If your firm, or you as an individual, wishes to sponsor a deserving young collector, please contact Kenneth L. Hallenbeck, Jr., chairman of the Young Numismatist Committee, 1141 West Lexington Avenue, Fort Wayne, IN 46807, or ANA Executive Director P.O. Box 2366, Colorado Springs, CO 80901. Promote numismatics by helping a young numismatist.

GARY E. LEWIS IN CHARGE OF YN SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATIONS

Gary E. Lewis, stationed at the Air Force near Colorado Springs, has been placed in charge of the scholarship program for juniors by Kenneth L. Hallenbeck, Jr., chairman of the YN committee. Any serious young numismatist, ages 11-17, with parental approval, interested in applying for Summer Seminar scholarships should contact Lewis at P. O. Box 31, USAF Academy, CO 80840, requesting an application form which must be filled out and returned to him not later than May 1.

As in past years, the seminar will be under the direction of ANA Executive Director Edward C. Rochette, to whom adults should address inquiries.

CENTURY OLD NOTES

There is less paper money in this colony (Massachusetts Bay) than in any other of America; the current coin is chiefly gold and silver; and Boston is the only place, I believe, where there ever was a mint to coin money. — From Burnaby's Travels in North America, in 1759 and 1760. — American Journal of Numismatics, April, 1874.

ARTHUR M. FITTS III

ASSISTANT TO THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

In January, 1974, Arthur M. Fitts III became the first assistant to the executive director of the American Numismatic Association. Born in Framingham, Massachusetts and educated at the Phillips Exeter Academy in Exeter, New Hampshire, and at Harvard University, Arthur had, for fifteen years, been an instructor at the Fessenden School in West Newton, Massachusetts. He taught geography, history, mathematics and Latin. In addition, he was administrative assistant to the headmaster and Director of Development.

Arthur's numismatic background and interests are varied. He is a collector of early American copper and a specialist in the coinages of Britain, especially Anglo-Saxon and medieval hammered issues. Now a life member (LM-951), Arthur joined the ANA in 1955. Arthur is a member of the British Numismatic Society, Organization of International Numismatists and the Israeli Numismatic Society of Massachusetts. He served as president of the Framingham (MA) Coin Club as well as serving as its secretary for over ten years, and was honored as a life member. For several years he was secretary of the Boston Numismatic Society. At the Fessenden School he founded and served as advisor for a junior club coin from 1960-69. He has served as director and is a life member of both the Collectors Club of Boston and the New England Numismatic Association (LM-1). In 1969 he was the medals chairman for the NENA convention in Boston and while in its service, developed and maintained a speakers bureau. Much of the success of the 1973 82nd Anniversary ANA Convention held "at Boston in New England" can be largely attributed to Arthur as general chairman. In 1970 at the St. Louis ANA Convention he captured the Edward T. Newell Exhibit Award, "coins prior to 1500" class.

With his wife, Nancy, and three sons; William, 11, Stephen, 7, and "Scotty," 2½, Arthur looks forward to settling into a new home and a new job. Nancy enjoys ballet and skating, while Arthur's interest lean toward genealogy and the history of England.

From his first day in Colorado Springs he noted, with surprise, the volume and variety of matters which need daily attention at ANA. As assistant to the director he will relieve the director, Ed Rochette, of part of the load which Ed, alone, has had to handle. With a growing membership, demands on the time of those at headquarters greatly increases. He will also assume more direct supervision of future conventions, which have grown tremendously in recent years. And, while the post of Museum Director remains vacant, he will undertake responsibilities there as well.

Eager to begin his work, Arthur looks forward to serving the membership of the ANA directly. He will welcome constructive comments and suggestions for he believes that to be effective, the association must be responsive to the ideas of all.

N. NEIL HARRIS BEGINS THIRTEENTH EDITORSHIP

N. Neil Harris, 33, began his duties as the thirteenth editor of The Numismatist in mid-January. Neil comes to ANA after eleven years at Purdue University in Lafayette, Indiana, his hometown, where he was a professional assistant as scientific illustrator in the medical illustration and biocommunications unit, School of Veterinary Science and Medicine, as well as a free lance artist.

With art and photography as his main early interests, Neil attended Indiana University and El Camino Junior College, Torrance, California. He is a graduate of the American School of Photography and also subscribed to art courses from Art Instruction, Inc., Minneapolis.

At Purdue Neil prepared scientific and medical illustrations, statistical charts, graphs, brochure layouts, book covers, exhibits, certificates, awards, and was familiar with techniques used in communications such as: photography, audio-visual and television. In all of these areas he served as coordinator, advisor and instructor to research and teaching staff as well as to graduate and veterinary students.

Having joined the ANA in 1966 (R-57445), Neil has served the association as historian since 1971 and will continue to do so along with the editorship. He was assistant historian from 1969-71 and currently serves as a member of the Medals and Hall of Fame committees. In 1973 a revised and condensed history of the ANA was completed.

In 1969 Neil published a limited edition catalogue on convention badges and medals of the ANA and in January 1970, the catalogue served as a basis for a series of more than thirty articles on that subject that ended in December 1973 in The Numismatist. In 1973 he received the Numismatic Literary Guild's award for Best Writer in The Numismatist. In 1969 his exhibit of these items won him a first place award at the Philadelphia convention.

Neil has served as photographer for the Token and Medal Society and the TAMS Journal and presently is book editor and a member of its board.

Recently resigned as president of the Indiana State Numismatic Association, Neil was the initial recipient of that group's annual founder's award for his contributions to numismatics in 1971, and has served the ISNA as an officer in some capacity since 1967. From 1968-72 he was its medal committee chairman and created its current medal series, Indiana and the Bicentennial, launched in 1972. Currently he is the commissioned sculptor for the series after sculpting the 1973 issue, his first. The 1965 ISNA convention medal was designed by Neil while serving his hometown and host club, the Lafayette Numismatic Society. He has been active locally since 1965 and was selected as its sixth life member in 1970.

Neil and his wife, Selma and their daughters Nadine, 11, and Nina, 9, look forward to enjoying cycling and other outdoor activities in the mild weather and pleasant surroundings of Colorado Springs.

G^{OLD}

For thousands of years gold has been a dynamic force. Men have lived and died for it; nations have flourished and fallen because of it; it has been a vital part of history, science and art. To follow the romance of gold through the ages from the old world into the new, you will enjoy reading GOLD, by Gina Allen (available on loan from the ANA library).

Gold coinage first appeared in Lydia circa 650 B. C. and since then it has maintained high popularity and world-wide acceptance as a medium of exchange. Artistically speaking, some of the early gold coins are still considered the most beautiful ever struck. And so emerged the coin collector, who then as well as now, collected for aesthetic reasons and for intrinsic value.

The lure of the beauty and value of gold does not diminish nor does its practicality. No metal is as malleable or as indestructible.

The photograph is a stater of Alexander the Great of Macedon, 336-323 B.C.

Letters from Members

Why Not Reprint?

I became a serious student and collector of foreign coins about four years ago. During the course of my studies, I came across several of the ANA reprints of monographs by O. P. Eklund originally published in The Numismatist. I felt that, if works like Eklund's were the steady fare for your readers, I was missing the boat by not belonging to ANA. In retrospect, I guess the days of the "literary banquet" were over years ago.

Granted that society produces but few numismatic researchers of Eklund's ilk, this does not oblige you to wait for "the next coming".

Our association has a vast library of definitive works from which to draw material for the monthly journal. Most of these books would be beyond the financial reach of the average collector — if available at all. What a service you would perform if you reprinted portions of important numismatic works — most specifically, the plates and illustrations as an aid to attribution.

Harry S. Scherzer
ANA 68825

Editors' note — For the most part, reprinting large portions of published books in the monthly offerings of The Numismatist would be unethical due to copyright laws in addition to being unfair to authors in general. This is one of the main reasons for the establishment of the world's largest circulating numismatic library here at ANA. For those who have become ANA members in recent years, our association library is available to all members, near and far, on a lending basis, postage and insurance paid both ways by the member. In addition there are over eighty reprint titles available for purchase by members, important works published previously in The Numismatist. Also, there are "Selections From The Numismatist", three volumes published in 1960 entitled; Modern Foreign Currency, Ancient Coins and United States Coins. A fourth volume, Miscellaneous, is out of print, but available occasionally from numismatic book dealers and auction sales. A best buy for members would be the two indexes available from The Numismatist, Vol. 1-51 (1888-1938), now out of print but available occasionally through dealers, and, Vol. 52-71 (1939-1958). So . . . you newer members should avail yourselves of the complete library services, write and request the library catalog and the list of reprints available.

A Godsend . . .

I am an active member of the American Numismatic Association and in 1972 they adopted group insurance. I did not think I needed it, but arranged by ANA I figured it must be good and signed up.

On March 5, 1973, I was rushed to the hospital for the first of three trips during the year. I had picked up an infection and during the year both legs were amputated below the knee, requiring long periods of confinement.

This insurance I didn't think I needed was a godsend and it paid off in full with no arguments. Believe me, I still have it.

(Name withheld by request)

It gives me great pleasure to let you know how satisfied I am in the way my claims have been settled — I have had several and don't think they could have been settled any better or more promptly.

In both the November and December, 1973, issues of The Numismatist, the diameter of the new 1973 Netherlands Antilles 25 guilder (guilder) silver crown was given as 25mm. — I thought I'd write to point out that the correct diameter should be given as 45mm.

Boston Medal Sets Arrive

In January the final order for medal sets commemorating the bicentennial of the Boston Tea Party and the 82nd Anniversary Convention of the ANA was received at Colorado Springs. Within days the packaging and shipping of all known outstanding orders for the sets, as well as the shipping of Merit of Exhibit medals to exhibitors who had not received theirs in Boston, was effected. Months of frustration and delay are at an end.

If there is anyone who has not yet received his convention badge or medal set for which he has made payment, please advise headquarters immediately.

The final production run of medal sets was nearly twice the previous high. Ladie's and men's registration badges totaled 50% more than earlier records.

There are a few medal sets available at $15.00 each plus $1.00 for postage, handling and insurance. Ladie's badges are gone, but there are some of the men's still available at $3.50 plus 50¢ postage. Orders will be filled from headquarters strictly in the order received should anyone wish to order now. Please address your orders to Medal Sets, American Numismatic Association, P. O. Box 2366, Colorado Springs, Colorado 80901. Make checks payable to the ANA.

CENTURY OLD NOTES

The Treasury Department have received advices from Pekin, China, that the new trade dollar of the United States has been assayed by the commissioner of the Chinese empire, and reported to be of more intrinsic value than the Mexican or Dutch dollars, which have been the standard coin among the Chinese for more than a century, and an imperial edict has consequently been issued making the United States silver dollar a dollar for all the Chinese. The demand in this country for Mexican silver dollars to use in the China trade has sometimes been so great that they have sold higher than gold, and are now at par and a little better in San Francisco, being exported to China and Japan by every steamer. — Boston Daily Advertiser — American Journal of Numismatics, April, 1874.

LIBRARY BOOK NEWS REVIEWS

Ancients

BYZANTINE COINS by Dr. P. D. Whitting. 1973. 312 pp. Illus. Hard cover. Barrie & Jenkins, Ltd., London, England. $25.00.

This is the second volume in the series, The World of Numismatics, the first of which, Ancient Greek Coins, was reviewed in The Numismatist, November, 1973. It will be noted that the format and even the number of pages are the same as those of the first volume. However, the first volume was priced at £7.00.

The color illustrations are a feature which make this book a particularly welcome addition to the literature on the East Roman series, since nearly all of the previous literature on it has contained little other than functional illustrations. It must be admitted that rather few Byzantine coins, especially the bronze, are of much beauty. Sixty-six sides of coins, all of which are gold or electrum, are illustrated on twenty color plates. The many other illustrations in black and white are also of high quality, and in many cases are on an intense black background with an almost velvety texture. The illustrations are enlargements, so that the author has had to include the diameters in millimeters in the captions. The order of the illustrations is not closely coordinated with the text. Opposite the first page of the chapter on the Palaeologus dynasty (1261-1453), for example, is a color plate showing gold of the seventh century.

The value of the captions could have been enhanced considerably if the weights of the illustrated pieces would have been included, as they were in the first volume of the series. Likewise, the inclusion of specific gravities would have made the captions of particularly great value, since specific gravities are of great importance in the study of Byzantine gold coins, especially beginning with those of the eleventh century, when they suffered a severe debasement after over seven centuries of remarkable stability in spite of the vicissitudes of the Empire.

Although specific gravities of Byzantine gold coins are of utmost importance, both in the study of their monetary functions and the detection of counterfeits, the author scarcely mentions the matter of specific gravity throughout his text, and when he does he leaves the reader with the incorrect impression that specific gravities are especially difficult to determine. As a matter of fact, specific gravities can be determined with some degree of accuracy by collectors using relatively simple equipment. (See specific gravity determinations and their practical applications in The Numismatist, November 1953, pp. 1152-1155.)

The text of this book is written by an author well acquainted with the scientific research on the series, including the significant progress that has been made on its metrological aspects during the last two or three decades. He concentrates on the coins themselves and what they can tell us rather than wasting space on general historical background that can be found in non-numismatic works. The author is well aware of the viewpoint of the collector, however, and even discusses the ascending market values of Byzantine coins since 1945.

Chapter XIII (Neighbours and Enemies: Some Related Coin Series) discusses the foreign imitations of the Byzantine series, especially those of the Arabs, who derived an important and extensive gold coinage from Byzantine prototypes during the course of the seventh century. In this chapter one would also expect to find at least a passing mention of the relatively common gold attributed by Wroth (1911) specifically to the Ostrogothic kings Odovacar, Theodoric and Athalaric, no mention of whom I can find throughout the volume. The slight mention of the Ostrogothic series on page 99 is hardly in keeping with its importance. Likewise, only the slightest mention is made of the historically interesting series of the Lombard kings in Beneventum, which was also an important derivative of Byzantine coinage. By way of contrast, much space is devoted to the Sassanian series, which is essentially unrelated to Byzantine coinage.

No formal bibliography is included, but a brief discussion of some of the more outstanding literature is given. Members of the ANA will be gratified to note the favorable reference to Prof. J. F. Lhotka's Introduction to East Roman Coinage, which was first published in The Numismatist and later reprinted.

Information on the Byzantine mints is extensive and a map of them is given. Tables of the fineness of the gold series are offered. Several brief appendices clarify names of common coins and weights, robes and regalia which are found on the coins and the Greek numbering system, all with Greek equivalents. The volume is concluded with a list of Byzantine emperors and an index.

The value of this volume, as well as that of the first in the series, is such that we await the future volumes of the series with eagerness and curiosity. These are to deal with Roman coins, Medieval coins, European coins of 1500-1789 and modern coins, thus forming a veritable encyclopedia of numismatics, apparently with the notable exceptions of the Indian and Far Eastern areas.

The Interlocking Rings

OLYMPIC COINS by Peter W. Broeker. 1973. 102 pp. Illus. Paper cover. Strebo, 99 Columbus St., Pointe-Claire, P. Q., Canada. $6.95.

Considerable information has been published about coins relating to the Olympic Games but this book brings it together in convenient form. In addition, the author has included a general introduction to the subject containing historical material about the games "from antiquity to the present," and some pertinent observations of his own.

He lists only three ancient coins as definitely relating to the original series of games, which is pretty well documented in 776 B. C. and thereafter, but concedes that further study may bring others into the category. The three coins listed are a tetradrachma of Messana, Sicily, 480 B. C.; a Macedonian tetradrachma of 356 B. C.; and a stater of Aspendus, 373-350 B. C. Why exact dates are assigned to the first two is not clear — and is questionable.

Starting with the Helsinki games of 1952, the coins of each event are illustrated and described, and the usual data on metals, size, weight and quantity issued are given. The author has made a feature of commenting on the seigniorage of most issues, an interesting sidelight.

This reviewer must fault the book for lack of good editing of the manuscript and for being poorly bound. Well, maybe incorrect punctuation, misspelled words and awkward phrases do not harm its practical use, although I still want to see "a mule driven chariot."

The author's address is the same as the publisher's except he is at — 97 Columbus Street. — Glenn S.

Spain and Her Coins

LAS MONEDAS ESPANOLAS DESDE LOS REYES CATOLICOS AL ESTADO ESPANOL, 1474-1974 by Carlos Castan and Juan R. Cayon. 1973. 534 pp. Illus. Hard cover. G. Cristobal (Carlisan), Dr. Federico Rubio, 168, Madrid -20-(Espana). Available from Juan R. Cayon, Fuencarral, 41, Madrid -4, Spain. $25.00.

This amazing book catalogs every coin issued by Spain and her colonies since the beginning of the reign of Ferdinand V in 1474. Nearly thirteen thousand different coins are listed by ruler, denomination, type, date, mint, and assayer, and are priced in three different conditions — a gigantic effort that must have taken the authors many years to complete.

The book is written in Spanish and values are given in pesetas, but this is no problem for English-speaking collectors. The simple arrangement makes it very easy to look up any piece, and photographs of each distinct type are given, so attribution is a cinch even for beginners. A short preface in English explains the layout and the cataloging system so that there is not much possibility for confusion.

The chief value of the book lies in the fact that it contains the entire coinage of modern Spain and her colonies in one easy-to-handle volume. Books on this subject that have appeared in the past have often been large, flamboyant, expensive works that have covered only one denomination in a volume, so they have been of real use only to the specialist. It is always good to see a compact handbook like this one that contains everything between two covers and makes it easy for anyone to quickly get an idea of the value of any piece issued by these countries in the past 500 years. — RAL

Latin America

PROCLAMATION MEDALS by Jose T. Medina. 1973. 368 pp. Illus. Hard cover. Quarterman Publications, Inc., 5 South Union St., Lawrence, MA 01808. $20.00.

This reprint is a classic reference work on Latin American proclamation medals. Proclamation medals were issued by Spanish possessions to commemorate the ascension of each successive Spanish monarch. This volume deals with these medals starting with a Lima proclamation medal of King Felipe II (1556-1598) as Medina No. 1 and ending with a Cuban proclamation medal of Alfonso XII (1874-1886) as Medina No. 433. Virtually every proclamation in the book is illustrated in half-tone, faithfully reproduced from the original work.

A new foreword and price guide is provided by Alcedo Almanza which will enable those not already familiar with these medals to recognize the great rarities.

Although written in Spanish, its use to collectors of all languages is facilitated by its concise chronological format and illustrations.

Economics, History, Law:

THE LEGAL AND MILITARY ASPECTS OF GERMAN MONEY, BANKING AND FINANCE 1938-1948, by Richard A. Banyai. 1971. 121 pp. Illus. Hard cover. Available from the author, 4520 North 34th Street, Phoenix, AZ 85018. $5.50.

This monograph is an in-depth study of a generally neglected aspect of the 1938-48 period of German economic history. As stated in the preface, "Military Government fiat in the money and banking area is an interesting study not only in economics but also in law. In general, this was a period of large-scale warfare and the occupation and administration of vast territories. The occupied territories required a military authority for the task of controlling money, banking and government."

This study is divided into three major parts, is illustrated with maps and specimens of currency and coin, and has a large, comprehensive reference section. Part 1 examines military occupation and the issue of military currency in the context of international law, with a select number of case citations as precedent.

Part II is an in-depth analysis of the legal and military aspects of German money, banking and financial policies in the occupied and annexed territories of continental Europe, 1938-45. Numerous decree laws issued by the German military authorities relating to money and banking are examined.

There are maps showing areas of invasion and occupation, and specimens of both military and regular coin and currency issued by both German authorities and the German controlled regimes in the occupied and annexed areas.

Part III examines the legal and military aspects of the banking and monetary reconstruction in Germany from 1945-48 under the Allied military occupation forces of the United States, Great Britain, France and the U.S.S.R. Numerous decree laws and other documents issued by the Allied forces of occupation relating to money and banking in occupied Germany are examined. There are maps of the zones of occupation in Germany and in the city of Berlin, and specimens of military currency used in Germany and Austria by the Allied forces. The important German monetary reform of June 1948 is carefully examined, and illustrated are specimens of the currency and coin issued during this reform in both the East and West zones of occupation in Germany and the city of Berlin.

This monograph is a concise, well illustrated and documented study. It will prove enlightening to specialists in economics and law, scholars and numismatists.

A glossary is offered in English, French, German, Italian and Spanish. Covering 114 countries, the directory could be very useful as a reference to numismatists including scholars, collectors and dealers.

Who's Who and What's What

INTERNATIONAL NUMISMATIC DIRECTORY, 1973. Compiled and edited by Jan J. Krasnodebski. 272 pp. Illus. Hard cover. Jan J. Krasnodebski, 9 St. Lawrence Road, London, S.W.9. $8.50.

This new directory is just that; containing listings of numismatic related museums and libraries, international organizations, societies and clubs, periodicals, publishers, banks and mints, contemporary designers, engravers and medallists, auctioneers, dealers, collectors, coin denominations of all countries, past and present.

In addition there are listings of medal issues such as United Nations and specialized agencies, International Red Cross, World Wildlife Fund, Millinium Medal and others.

ANOTHER INAUGURAL MEDAL

The official Gerald R. Ford Vice Presidential Inaugural Medal offered to the public is of the same design as the gold medal presented January 21st to Vice President Ford. This issue is available in five varieties: 2½-inch 24 Karat gold-on-silver vermeil, limited to 1,000 pieces at $76.25; 2½-inch proof silver, limited to 2,500 at $61.25 each; 2½-inch antique silver, limited to 2,500 at $56.25; 1½-inch proof silver at $16 and 2 3/4-inch bronze at $8.25 each, unlimited. Each price includes postage and handling costs. A portion of the profits on all medal sales is designated for the Gerald R. Ford Scholarship Fund at the University of Michigan, Ford's alma mater. Medals are available direct from the producer, Medallion Art Company, Dept. F, Old Ridgebury Road, Danbury, Conn. 06810.

Talented Array

COINAGE OF THE AMERICAS, edited by Theodore V. Buttrey, Jr., 1973. 140 pp., illus. Heavy paper cover. American Numismatic Society, Broadway at 155th-156th Sts., New York, N.Y. 10032. $7.50

In the introduction to this book the editor states, loosely quoted, that "this survey volume is intended to complement a major exhibition of the coinage of the Western Hemisphere prepared by the American Numismatic Society on the occasion of the first International Numismatic Congress to be held in the New World." This was the eighth such congress, the first having been in 1891.

The book is NOT a catalog of the exhibition, in fact, no further reference is made to it. It is a brief but thorough summary of the coinages of North, Central and South America from the arrival of the Spanish explorers late in the fifteenth century to today's base metal coinage of the United States.

Authors of the various sections, in order of their appearances, are: Humberto F. Burzio, Ted Buttrey, Henry Grunthal, Jeremiah D. Brady, Ray Byrne, Eric P. Newman and Walter Breen. With such an array of talented numismatic scholars, their efforts edited and coordinated by Buttrey, no further recommendation of the book should be necessary.

One does not miss the exhibition of actual coins because he can view more than 250 excellent photos of subject coins, conveniently placed in the wide margins adjacent to the related text. In most cases, both sides of the coins (and a few examples of paper money) are illustrated in approximately actual size.

Every collector and student, novice or advanced, of coins and history of "The Americas" should have this book in his or her library. The easy-to-read type and (mostly) superb illustrations are printed without crowding on high-grade paper. As usual, Walter Breen injected some of his personal barbed observations on U.S. coin designs, but most readers will enjoy them — Glenn S.

SOLID FOUNDATION

THE NATIONAL BANK OF COMMERCE of Seattle, 1889 - 1969 by Elliot Marple & Bruce H. Olson, 1972. Library binding, illus. 278pp. Pacific Books, Publishers, P.O. Box 558, Palo Alto, Cal. 94302. No price listed.

As banks go in Eastern and Midwest America, the subject bank of this book is not old. Yet it was founded in the early era of the Pacific Northwest settlement and development, so it is one of the oldest in that region.

While the story centers around the founding and growth of NBoFC, it is, of necessity, a history of the commercial and industrial development of the State of Washington and, more particularly, of Seattle. Persons concerned with such history and in the expansion of a one-man frontier bank into one of the financial giants of America will find this work highly interesting.

The following statement gives a clue to this reviewer's enjoyment in reading the book. "Early-day banks generally were headed by strong individuals accustomed to leadership and sensitive to their positions. The founder . . . ran the bank and stood as the symbol of his institution in the community. Banking was on a much more personal basis than it is today. Loans were based on the character of the borrower and on the banker's personal appraisal and hunch about the man."

That situation is not the general one today. One man could be the personal banker when NBoFC had only $200,000 in deposits, but not today with deposits well over a billion dollars. A given number of dollars can be increased 5,000 times, and more, but one man's capability has much lower limits. This is the story of how a foundation built by one man grew, and grew, and still grows. — Glenn S.

CENTURY OLD NOTES

The officers of the Philadelphia Mint have been instructed to use two thirds of its entire capacity in the coinage of silver until otherwise ordered. Under this arrangement the Mint can turn out from $1,000,000 to $1,500,000 per month. — American Journal of Numismatics, April, 1874.

The American Numismatic Society, ANA's sister organization based in New York City, published a number of monographs for the first International Congress held in the United States last Fall. Reviewer Glenn B. Smedley presented an indepth, critical review of perhaps the most popular work to emerge from that congress, Coinage of the Americas, but there were other equally important works to be published. These were:

A SURVEY OF NUMISMATIC RESEARCH 1966 - 1971, Vol. I, Ancient Numismatics. Edited by Paul Naster, J.-B. Colbert de Beaulieu and Joan M. Fagerlie. 1973. 372pp. Paper cover. Three volume set, $40.00.

Vol. II. Mediaeval and Oriental Numismatics. Edited by Jacques Yvon and Helen W. Mitchell Brown.

Vol. III. Modern Numismatics Including Medals. Edited by Lubomir Nemeskal and Elvira Clain-Stefanelli.

In addition, the ANS undertook the publication of the following in conjunction with the International Numismatic Commission, sponsors of the Congress.

AN INVENTORY OF GREEK COIN HOARDS. Edited by Margaret Thompson, Otto Morkholm and Colin M. Kraay. 1973. 408 pp. Maps. Paper cover. $35.00.

All the preceding works, including Coinage of the Americas, can be ordered directly from the American Numismatic Society, Broadway between 155th and 156th Sts., New York, N.Y. 10032, or from local book dealers.

BANK NOTES by Malcolm

DID YOU KNOW...

ABOUT A CENTURY BEFORE THE ESTABLISHMENT OF AMERICA'S FIRST COMPREHENSIVE CLEARING HOUSE, MESSENGERS OF VARIOUS LONDON BANKS WERE SAVING STEPS BY UNOFFICIALLY MEETING DAILY AT CONVENIENT COFFEE HOUSES WHERE THEY OFFSET THEIR BILLS AND CHECKS AGAINST EACH OTHER'S AND PAID OVER THE BALANCES.

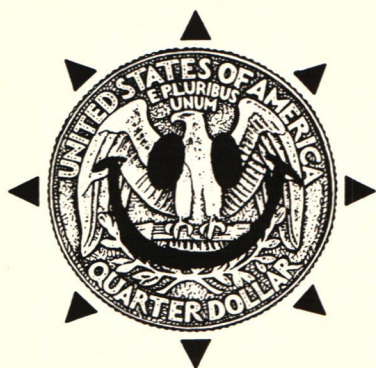

EVERYONE BORROWS. ANDREW CARNEGIE'S INTRODUCTION TO BANK CREDIT WAS A LOAN OF $217.50 TO PAY FOR HIS SHARE IN THE FIRST TWO SLEEPING CARS EVER BUILT. THEY GREW INTO THE PULLMAN COMPANY!

A KNOTTED ROPE CALLED A "QUIPUS" WAS USED AS A SYSTEM OF BANKING AMONG CERTAIN CENTRAL AMERICAN INDIAN TRIBES. THE COLOR OF THE ROPE, THE SHAPE OF THE KNOT, ITS PLACEMENT, ETC., INDICATED THE AMOUNT AND LENGTH OF TIME BEFORE THE DEBT HAD TO BE REPAYED TO THE CREDITOR.

Club Publications Competition Time Is Here

Entries of 1973 club publications may now be submitted for judging. A few already have been received at headquarters. Winners will receive awards at the 1974 convention in Bal Harbour, Florida.

Since the annual award for the outstanding ANA member club publication was instituted four years ago, interest and competition for this honor have spread. Two awards may be made if entries justify them. One award is for the publication of a local club and the other is presented for a state or regional organization's publication.

No changes have been made in the rules of the past competitions. All ANA member clubs, local or regional (not national), except for those having an elected or salaried officer of the association as editor or assistant editor, are eligible for one of the two awards. The awards are equally significant. To qualify, publications must have been issued on a regular basis, at least quarterly, and all 1973 issues must be submitted for judging.

Awards will be made on the basis of general appearance, newness, composition, quality and aptness of illustrations (if any appear), arrangement, and relative interest to members of the organization.

Judging will be done under the direction of a panel of not less than five members appointed by the president of ANA. The panel shall include the association's editor and the chairman of its committee having responsibility for club activities.

If no publication submitted is considered by the judging panel to be worthy of an award, the award will not be issued. Nonpayment of ANA dues for the year of 1974 shall disqualify the club from consideration of the award. Some clubs were so disqualified last year.

Winners receive a specially designed logo that can be used on their masthead to signify that theirs is the best of their class.

Four things should be remembered when submitting a club publication entry: entries must be received by headquarters before March 31; first class mail must be used; name and address of sender must be included; and dues for 1974 must have been paid.

There will be an extra charge for heavy composition.

ILLUSTRATIONS: All cuts to be provided by the advertiser. When absolutely necessary engravings can be made from furnished photographs and advertiser will be billed at national rates.

The advertising manager has on file the names and addresses of all advertisers. Any complaints or requests for information regarding advertisers should be referred to the advertising manager. The right to edit copy, to require payment in advance, and to decline any advertisement is specifically reserved.

SKYLAB I ART MEDAL

PRESIDENTIAL ART MEDALS PROUDLY ANNOUNCES

the Skylab I Art Medal. The first in a series of three medals commemorating NASA's Skylab Project.

DESIGNER AND SCULPTOR

The Skylab I medal was designed by Thomas W. Becker, noted numismatic author as well as having recently published "Exploring Tomorrow In Space", a book about man's future plans for space exploration. The models were created by Adlai S. Hardin, a highly honored sculptor who is an academician of the National Academy of Design and a Fellow and Past President of the National Sculpture Society.

SKYLAB I ART MEDAL

High relief for clarity and beauty — multiple struck to bring out the fine details of the sculptor's models — antique finish to emphasize the artistic quality in the medal. All of these are yours in this beautiful art medal commemorating this epic moment in history.

The Skylab I Art Medal is 2½" in diameter and offered as follows:

10,000 serially numbered antique finish silver (.999+ pure) . . . $45.00 each
(plus $1.25 for postage, insurance and handling)

Antique finish bronze $ 7.50 each
(plus $.60 for postage, insurance and handling)

Ohio residents add 4½% state sales tax.

A descriptive pamphlet and metal stand comes with each medal.

Delivery — The medal is scheduled for delivery in February, 1974. Your order will be acknowledged.

Credit Card Charges — We accept BANKAMERICARD and MASTER CHARGE credit cards. On credit card charges please give your card number and expiration date. Also on Master Charge please furnish the InterBank number.

Cayman Islands 1974 Proof Set

The Mint exercises the utmost care in striking these Proof coins to assure you the highest quality coins possible. This careful minting process takes time and so we ask that you please allow up to four (4) months after the ordering deadline before expecting delivery of your sets.

Visually captivating, the eight coins in the beautiful 1974 Cayman Islands Proof Set will lead you through an imaginary adventure to the bright sun drenched beaches of the exotic Cayman Islands!

Each striking coin design is particularly symbolic of some special aspect of the Cayman Islands. The 5 cent, 10 cent, 25 cent and 50 cent coins, with their interesting designs of crayfish, Cayman green turtles, a schooner under full sail and rock beauty fish, convey the strong influence of the sea upon the lives of Cayman Islanders.

The delicate tiny thrush, shown on the bronze one cent piece, and the graceful Cayman egret, depicted on the $2 silver coin, are examples of the islands' enchanting wildlife. The exquisite $1 poinciana flower coin design represents the lush, colorful vegetation seen on the islands. Probably most coveted, however, will be the elegant 42 mm $5 silver coin, with its beautiful portrait of Queen Elizabeth II on the obverse, and the Cayman Coat of Arms on the reverse, featuring the motto, "He Hath Founded It Upon The Seas".

Brilliant in design, Cayman Proof coins are further enhanced by their exceptional high quality. Struck by the world famous Royal Canadian Mint in Ottawa, Canada, each coin glimmers in its lustrous appearance, and all sets are packaged in a plush presentation case, so they may be proudly displayed.

Since many countries now use very little if any silver in their coinage, the fact that four of the Cayman Proof Coins are .925 fine silver in composition is indeed significant to investors. Previous Cayman Proof Sets are already commanding prices well above their original issue prices.

Now is an ideal time to begin (or continue) your Cayman Islands Proof Set collection. Official government issue price for the Proof Set is $39.00 plus handling. Collectors may also wish to purchase the beautiful 1974 Proof $5 coin, sold separately for just $12.75 each, plus handling.

The number of sets minted will exactly equal the number of sets ordered by the official deadline date of March 31, 1974. Please mail your order early to ensure delivery of your 1974 Cayman Islands Proof Set.

DEADLINE: MARCH 31, 1974

Official Government Issue Price:

Panama 1974 Proof Set

The Mint exercises the utmost care in striking these Proof coins to assure you the highest quality coins possible. This careful minting process takes time and so we ask that you please allow up to four (4) months after the ordering deadline before expecting delivery of your sets.

Among the most sought after Proof Sets in Paramount International Coin Corporation's World Proof Set Program are the sparkling 6-piece Panama Proof Sets.

The handsomely designed 1974 Panama Proof Set will again feature the famous Spanish explorer, Vasco Nunez de Balboa, on the 10 cent, 25 cent, 50 cent and magnificent 38 mm silver One Balboa coins. As has been the case for nearly 40 years, the bronze one cent piece will feature 16th Century Indian Chief, Urraca. The common reverse, with the exception of the one cent piece, depicts Panama's beautiful Coat of Arms. These coins are of the highest quality and struck at the United States Mint. Every Proof Set is packaged in a plush presentation case.

First minted in 1966, Panama Proof Sets have grown substantially in value and popularity. Panama's Proof Series is the longest (and first) in Paramount's World Proof Set Program, and the third longest series in the entire Western Hemisphere, surpassed only by the U.S. and Canada in duration.

All Panama Proof Sets are now selling for more than their original issue prices, and the 1966 and 1970 sets are extremely rare, available only at two to three times their original selling prices.

Single Balboas have also become prized among collectors. The 1931, 1934, 1947 and 1953 Balboas, and all Proof Balboas issued separately since 1970 are constantly on Paramount customer "want lists".

In today's world of high prices, collectors will find the 1974 Panama Proof Set to be an exceptional bargain! Each set still costs just $17.00, and Proof Set purchasers have the exclusive option of buying up to two additional Proof Balboas per Proof Set ordered, for just $7.50 each.

The 1974 Panama Proof Set, with its timeless designs, superb quality and potential investment value, will be a valued and distinctive addition to any collection. Now is the time to place your order, before the official deadline date, March 15, 1974. As always, the number of Panama Proof Sets minted will exactly equal the number of orders received by the official deadline.

DEADLINE: MARCH 15, 1974

THE 1974 SET IS PACKAGED IN A PLUSH PRESENTATION CASE

Official Government Issue Price: $17 per set

Acceptance of orders is contingent upon the Mint's ability to meet the demand. Should the number of orders exceed the ability of the Mint to produce these coins within the required production deadline, it may be necessary to effect a reduction or cancellation of some orders received. In the event of such reduction or cancellation, a full refund will be made on any undelivered sets.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE RUBY SALE

COLONIAL COINAGE - A little known facet of the Ruby Collection was his outstanding group of Colonial Coins. Over twenty-odd years, without systematic collecting, he managed to assemble a tremendous grouping of choice pieces mixed with some extreme rarities. — NEARLY 175 DIFFERENT COLONIALS.

HALF CENTS - A marvelous group, rich in 1793's, 96's 97's 1802's and 1811's. Four 1796's (two with pole) and a selection of proofs.

LARGE CENTS - Dr. Ruby was probably best known for his amazingly comprehensive collection of Early American Cents. If in other series he "collected the Red Boon in depth," here he collected the Sheldon varieties in even greater depth. As a result, side by side we find coins of immense historical importance, coins of high condition census rank, and lower grade examples of rare, scarce and occasionally common varieties, so that the neophyte may also have a chance to obtain one or more coins with the fabulous Dr. Ruby pedigree.

TYPE COINS - Nearly every U.S. type coin will be represented, many in depth.

EXCEPTIONAL COLLECTION OF DIMES, QUARTERS AND HALF DOLLARS - Mostly Uncirculateds and Proof issues.

EXTRAORDINARY COLLECTION OF U.S. SILVER DOLLARS - Including two 1794's; Twenty different before 1803; a lovely 1836 Proof Gobrecht; Nearly a complete collection of Liberty Seated Dollars including many Uncs. and Proofs; Morgan Dollars complete with many proofs; Trade Dollars complete thru 1883.

GROUP OF EARLY U.S. PROOF SETS - Highlighted by a 1846 set.

COLLECTION OF U.S. GOLD COINS - Gold Dollars nearly complete; A lovely group of $2.50, $3.00, $5.00, $10.00, and $20.00 gold pieces including many scarce and rare dates.

TERRITORIAL GOLD COINS - Nearly 50 various pattern issues from Cents thru Gold Patterns.

U.S. MINT ERRORS - A very important grouping of major mint errors. This includes a 1858 Flying Eagle cent struck on a half dime planchet and a 1943-S Copper Penny.

GOLD COINS OF THE WORLD - A fine selection of foreign gold coins including an important collection of Japanese gold and silver coins.

THE DR. CHARLES L. RUBY COLLECTION

To own a coin from a "name" collection — Caruso, Heifetz, Menjou, W. H. Woodin, Jerome Kern or Dr. Sheldon, to name only a few — is to establish a link with its famous previous owner. We have found over the years that most collectors like to know something about the people whose coins they have become fortunate enough to acquire. Dr. Charles L. Ruby deserves to be ranked with these; he is by far the most illustrious individual to have formed a "name" collection for auction in decades.

We are proud to have the opportunity to be associated with the dispersal of the fabulous Ruby collection; we are even more proud to call him a friend.

James F. Ruddy and Q. David Bowers tell you . . .

How to get the best price for your coins

Considering the sale of your coin collection? James F. Ruddy and Q. David Bowers offer you the finest auction service in the rare coin field today. Consider the advantages that a combined public and mail bid auction by the American Auction Association offers you:

THE BEST POSSIBLE PRICE for your coins will be yours with an American Auction Association sale. Public attendance plus spirited mail bidding from our mailing list of the most active buyers in numismatics will combine to produce the best possible price for your coins—the best results available in the auction market today.

"What Others Say"

When we sold the Armand Champa Collection at public sale, Mr. Champa was so pleased with the results that he did something unprecedented in the annals of numismatic auctions: completely unsolicited by us he placed large advertisements in The Numismatist and other leading publications to thank us for our service:

"Thank you Dave Bowers and Jim Ruddy for the excellent handling of my coins through your American Auction Association. I was very well pleased with your wonderful descriptions of my coins, especially the patterns. The prices realized for my coins nearly doubled the offers I received from other dealers."

Recently another consignor, Dr. Bernard Bressler, of the Duke University Medical Center (Durham, North Carolina), wrote to say:

"I am most appreciative of your sending me the check and the results from your last auction. I am more than satisfied with the proceeds. I want to congratulate you on the beautiful catalogue and the beautiful results."

And, many similar unsolicited comments are in our files.

EXPERT CATALOGUING by James F. Ruddy, Q. David Bowers, and the other professional numismatists on the staff of Bowers and Ruddy Galleries, Inc. You get the experience of our having handled many millions of dollars worth of choice United States and world coins—including many of the finest collections sold in America and Europe in recent decades.

A BEAUTIFUL CATALOGUE will highlight your collection. Important pieces will be illustrated with detailed photographs. The illustrations, layout, typography, and descriptions of the coins will make the catalogue featuring your collection a standard reference for years to come. (Or, if you prefer—as many sellers do—we'll keep your identity strictly confidential.) Your collection will be offered to its best advantage.

CASH ADVANCES AVAILABLE. Generous cash advances toward the amount realized are available. In that way you can have immediate cash right now.

PLUS THESE OTHER ADVANTAGES: We offer competitive commission rates. Insured protection for your collection in secure bank vaults. Complete research facilities for die varieties, rarity ratings, etc. — to assure you of a better price for your coins. Unquestioned financial reputation. Early sale dates now available.

OUR REFERENCES: Over past decades countless American Numismatic Association members have made the right decision and have let James F. Ruddy and Q. David Bowers sell their coins. The Collier Collection, the Fairfield Collection, the Fuller Collection, the Gilroy Collection, the Westwood Collection, the Monroe Collection, the Wilmette Collection, the Armand Champa Collection, the Robert Marks Collection—and the list is virtually endless—have all been handled by us to the complete satisfaction of their owners.

We are Life Members of the Numismatic Association and are members of the International Association of Professional Numismatists, the Professional Numismatists Guild (James F. Ruddy is the recipient of the PNG Distinguished Service Award), and other leading organizations.

Considering the sale of your choice coins or collection? Write or telephone James F. Ruddy or Q. David Bowers today. We will discuss our complete arrangements with you and will answer any questions you may have. If you want the very best price for your choice coins, do as other ANA members have done over the years: have James F. Ruddy and Q. David Bowers sell your coins. Let us include YOUR COINS in the next American Auction Association public sale, an event which we are planning right now.

YOU DESERVE A BITE TODAY

Put the Bite on Us . . .

If you have recently thought about negotiating the transfer of your holdings, whether they be a single collection, investment cache, lifetime accumulation or for that matter any item or items of numismatic interest, The Old Roman, Inc., is the buyer for You. The Old Roman is currently generating revenues with many of the largest corporations in the nation, a number even being in Fortune's Top 50. Further, the Old Roman serves in a procurement and advisory capacity to some of the most renowned and impressive museums, libraries, and private collections in the world. Couple this with the fact that we are one of the world's largest rare coin dealerships and you can see how genuine and constant is our need for new material.

Our needs are not limited to any particular item or items. Whatever area of endeavor you may have pursued just so long as it can be defined numismatically will suit the Old Roman quite well. THERE ARE NO QUALIFICATIONS AS TO QUANTITY OR GRADE, be it 1 Proof specimen or 1,000 AG specimens. In a word, we're as flexible as you are.

Competition is keen for the purchase of coins. We are currently spending six-figure money every month in the pursuit of merchandise. Whether it is a $5.00 transaction or a $500,000 transaction, there is no limit as far as the value of the item or items you wish to sell. We now take this opportunity to invite you to sell us your holdings. This is a simple procedure THAT WILL COST YOU NOTHING!

(1) Pack your items securely and forward them to the address below via U.S. Mail, U.P.S. or REA. Be sure to adequately insure the contents of your parcel. Upon receipt of same a member of our purchasing division will be personally assigned to your shipment and a check will be forwarded to you immediately upon receipt of your shipment to which you may either accept or refuse.

(2) Should you feel a personal visit will be necessary for one reason or another, feel free to write or call us collect so we may make necessary arrangements. Naturally, your confidence and goodwill are sacred to us.

In addition to an immediate cash offer on your coins we will include the full cost of forwarding your coins to us in our offer. Should you refuse our offer, which is in itself unlikely, we will promptly return your coins to you Postpaid, with an additional check for all shipping costs incurred by you. IN A WORD, WE PAY FOR EVERYTHING, ONE WAY OR THE OTHER. A stronger offer just can't be made! Don't let previous disappointments or differences with others stop you from dealing with us. Here at the OLD ROMAN — WE MEAN BUSINESS!

You might be interested to know that the financial stability of the OLD ROMAN is such that our credit is unquestioned throughout the coin industry. When it comes to payment you are the boss, whatever form this may take, Company check, Certified check, Bank Draft, Wire or if you wish, Cash on the barrel head.

Our commissions to finders are the most generous in all of coin-dom. Should you be in the position to negotiate the transfer of someone else's holding, it will pay you well to contact us.

In conclusion we feel our offer to buy is sincere, genuine and certainly as strong as is possible. Since you incur no expense or obligation whatsoever. If there is something yet unsettled in your mind, please feel free to call us collect as we would love to hear from you today.

WANTED

America's best buyer of Rare coins urgently needs your collection!

As one of America's foremost Rare Coin firms the demands on our inventory are extensive, requiring us to purchase Choice and Rare Coins at an ever expanding rate.

We Want To Buy: Your entire collection is urgently needed no matter what the size, if it contains the items we are looking for. Generally we are interested in any collection which contains Choice and Rare coins and early U. S. coins in AU or better condition.

Individual Coins: We are sincerely interested in individual sets and single coins as well as complete collections. We are particularly interested in worthwhile numismatic items that retail over $10.00 each. Our needs range from Colonials thru Gold including rare dates as well as more common dates in Choice condition.

Selling to US: You will find that selling to our Rare Coin Galleries is easy and safe. Here is all you do — Package your coins carefully and send them to us by insured or registered mail. Immediately upon receipt of your coins David Bland, Jr., will personally examine your coins and send you our generous offer in the form of a confidential insured check. Upon receipt of our offer you can notify us of your decision to sell (nearly every one of the thousands of offers we have made over the past decade has been accepted). If for any reason you decide not to sell, your coins will be returned to you by insured mail at our expense. If your collection is too large to mail please send an itemized inventory to the attention of David Bland, Jr., and we will travel to you if the size of the collection warrants it.

You Will Receive More For Your Coins: Because our needs are so great at this time we will pay more than any other major dealer in the U. S. Why not sell to us as thousands of other satisfied collectors have.

For references you may apply to any numismatic publication or numismatic organization. We are members of: The American Numismatic Association (Mr. Bland is Life Member 677); Professional Numismatists Guild; Texas Numismatic Association; etc.

If you are an active buyer of U. S. coins that retail over $10.00 each you may request a free copy of our retail catalogue. Our catalogue contains selections of every series of U. S. coins, including many choice and rare items.

ANNOUNCING A NATION-WIDE BUYING SERVICE

If you are seriously considering selling your collection, we need to buy it. During the past year, our retail sales have increased by over 70%. What does this mean? For us, it means the pleasure of serving you with our continued quality service, and lowest possible prices. For you, which is even more important, (because without you, we would not be here) it means the intrinsic satisfaction of securing another rare numismatic item.

However, in order to satisfy the ever growing numismatic fraternity, we are embarking upon a nation-wide buying service. You will notice that we have stated service. Why? Because it is this company's policy to treat you in the same fair and upright dealings when buying your coins as we use when selling ours. It is for these reasons that we feel our buying service will be something new and innovative for the entire numismatic fraternity.

Here is what our nation-wide buying service provides:

1. Instant cash (confidential, of course, if you wish).
2. Bank references available (contact Mr. Bill Whitsitt at Texas Bank & Trust, One Main Place, Dallas, Texas).
3. Call us collect at 214-748-4044 if you desire to sell a large collection, or you may ship your collection with invoice to Mike Follett Rare Coins, Plaza Level, One Main Place, Dallas, Texas, 75250. Within 24 to 48 hours, you will receive our generous offer by return mail.
Should you decide not to sell, we will return your coins immediately upon hearing from you. Of course, they will be fully insured and we will pay the postage. (During the past year, 82% of those who have sent us coins in this manner have sold their collection). Through this method you risk absolutely nothing.
4. We can be at your bank, home, or office anywhere in the USA within 24 hours of your call provided your collection warrants.
5. We will buy your entire collection, not just the choice material.
6. You will be selling to a coin retailer, not a middle man; therefore, you are assured to the highest possible price.
7. You will be selling to a company backed with 11 years' experience in buying and grading numismatic material. Your coins will be personally evaluated by Mr. Follett before purchase.
8. You will be negotiating with a company well received and respected throughout the numismatic world.

We are in particular need of the following numismatic items: All choice type material, early Bust dollars and Bust quarters in any grade, all key and semi-key coins with a wholesale value of $10 or more, scarce and rare dates in seated quarters or halves, and all USA and foreign gold both rare and common. Without assuming an air or ostentation, this company has marketed twelve coins with a retail value of over $5,000 each during the past year. As an indication of our high buy prices, we are paying above the 1973 Red Book Catalogue for the following items:

All BU Half Dimes From 1794-1837
All BU Dimes From 1796-1838
All BU Quarters From 1796-1838
All BU Halves From 1794-1840
All BU Bust Dollars 1794-1803
1834-1839 Quarter Eagle Gold BU
1854-S Quarter Eagle Gold BU

In closing, it is the goal and purpose of this numismatic enterprise to serve you — the Numismatist. For the thousands of you that have bought from us, we say thank you. For those of you who have sold to us in the past, we encourage you to continue. For those of you that we have yet to meet, we want to know you. Drop us a line and tell us what you have for sale. We feel that our nation-wide buying service will go further in meeting your individual needs than any other buying program offered today.

Thank you.

THINKING OF SELLING?

Texas' leading coin company, Colonial Coins, is in great need of rare coins. Homes & estates in this area are less than 100 yrs. old, so finding old coins is virtually impossible. We are constantly forced to travel & advertise into the world market to supply our collectors.

We are also expanding our offices to San Antonio, & we will have many new collectors to satisfy.

All our buyers are anxious for good coins (we just mailed a list to 100,000 collectors). We will pay near retail on immediate cash settlement.

— AREAS OF GREATEST INTEREST —

(A) USA Gold - Rare date St. Gaudens, Liberty, & Territorial Gold, single pcs. or whole collections. We are interested in silver & copper coins, especially pre-1900 collections, & single coins. We meet, & surpass, all legitimate buy prices.

(B) Foreign Coins - As the leading dealer in Latin American, & especially Mexican coins, we have many good customers who buy from us exclusively.

Many of them do not read or speak English & rely on us for all their coins. We buy from dealers & collectors, both at retail prices. We also have serious customers for crowns, especially high grade, high value items.

— NEEDED IMMEDIATELY —

- (1) Nice collection of USA gold coins.
- (2) High grade USA type collection.
- (3) Large USA coin collection, including silver $.
- (4) Two fine Mexican collections (gold & silver) 1556 to date.
- (5) One crown collection, including Latin or European coinage.
- (6) Any treasure findings from A to Z.

DOCTOR'S INVESTMENT GROUP

Dr. George Vogt, Pres. of Colonial Coins, & advisor to the Doctor's Investment Group, is still making large investments in USA, and foreign gold in large lots. The group is also interested in rolls and bags of silver $, unusual rolls of silver & gold coins, i.e. Unc. "V" nickels by the roll, half dimes by the roll, & proof sets prior to 1940. Please write us about your holdings & please state prices desired, for the Group's decision.

HOW DO YOU SELL TO US?

- A. Pack up your coins & send them to us via registered mail. Our top offer, in the form of a check, will be returned to you by return mail. We guarantee satisfaction. This is a fast cash settlement for you. We are bonded; Dun & Bradstreet rated; & secured Via Memorial Bank. After obtaining our permission, you may send your coins to our bank.
- B. We also invite you to make an appointment with us for a cash settlement on the spot.
- C. We will travel to you if your collection is too large to ship, or if you live in a foreign country. We travel to Europe & South America, & the Orient. Advise us the size & major rarities of your collection.
- D. Large finder's fee to persons who locate & help us to purchase collections.

We have funds from $1,000 to $1,000,000.

ENTIRE MARKET ENJOYS UPSWING! Gold & Silver Prices Stimulate Buying In All Areas

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

Early in the week, teletype dealers were still trying to buy commems in quantity at five or ten percent below current bid levels. They were meeting with very little success—and it seems that many of the pieces they did manage to locate at these prices were less than choice. By mid-week plus signs began to appear on the charts and even these advancing bid levels produced only moderate trade. Finally, towards week's end, several dealers had entered the common market once again; some were now not only paying higher prices for specific issues but were also offering to "pay bid" for quantities of any issue. The floating supply that could be picked up in "bargain hunting" is already practically exhausted—so we could now be entering an even more interesting part of the cycle!

With this strong addition of commems to teletype "want lists," it is clear that current buyer demand now covers virtually all areas of the market—from circ. common date material to choice BU type—and everything in between! Last week's long overdue glimmering of interest in silver dollar rolls is more pronounced this week. The bid is now $110 for Morgan rolls—with a few dealers hoping to pry loose some solid date bags with their bids of $550. This same tactic is being used by dealers in their attempts to locate one hundred set lots of spot-free proof sets. Bids have been edging forward five or ten cents at a time for all dates after 1955—but, as usual, sellers have managed to keep just ahead of bidders. It should be noted that interest is once again picking up for the 1936-42 proof sets; moderate sales were recorded during the week at currently established price levels.

Canadian silver dollars—especially choice BU earlier dates—are another area of great buyer activity. Although dealers offer more and more for the 1935-55 issues very few choice pieces have changed hands. As an example, the key 1948 issue is now receiving bids of $400 per choice piece—and not a single sale has been registered! You will also note that the minimum bid for any Canadian profile set is now $4.60—with scattered sales during the week recorded as high as $5! Dealers are also offering to pay $21.50-$21.75 per bag for any "silver" Canadian silver dollar—again the supply is very thin and prices are well ahead of an ever advancing market.

A quick look at the bid for common date gold coins will give an idea of what has been happening this week. All "bullion" gold coins are setting price records—and the soaring price of silver is keeping our staff busy adjusting the price levels for common date circ and BU rolls of silver coins. As usual, please check daily price levels for gold and silver related material before either buying or selling in this area.

This Week's Market

CENTS: Lincoln rolls are now appearing on extensive buying lists; dealers want five or ten rolls of numerous issues from 1934 on—with the popular late dates still in demand by the bag. Of course, only unsold pieces are wanted—which eliminates quite a percentage of the available rolls.

1949P - Bid now $16; 1951P - Bid now $37

1950P (m) - Still on the move—with sales as high as $105

1972/72 - Choice singles are offered at $85

NICKELS: More gains for the Buffalo—with bids for the roll set 1934-38 (twelve issues) registered at $3550—the twelve circ rolls are bid at $74. Wartime roll sets are up again—but this week is $930; some of the individual roll changes are—

1943S - Bid now $52.50; 1944D - Bid now $47

1944S - Bid now $66.50; 1945D - Bid now $47

1950D - Transactions at a slightly advanced $305

1978P (7/8T) - Up $25—with bids of $375

1978CC - Bid now $350; 1978S - Bid now $160

1982CC, $350 & $400 - A lot of a rally—with all three rolls bid at a higher $435

1987P - Sales at $170; 1899P - Bid reaches $850

PROOF SETS AND MINT SETS: In "plus sign" all the way from 1956 thru 1970!—bidders want quantities and sellers, for the most part, are managing to keep their price tags ahead of the market. This is another of the many areas to keep an eye on.

COMMEMORATIVES: Suddenly several dealers "will pay bid" for any issue—and will take quantity. Other dealers are more impatient—and have already begun to edge bid levels higher (check page two). Choice gold commems sets, by the way, are not available to bidders who offer $4100 per set.

U.S. GOLD: (Prices are for the most common dates of each type.)

WESTERN COIN EXCHANGE BUYS COINS

LOOK AT OUR RECORD

During the past year we have bought a $110,000.00 estate of San Francisco mint Saint Gaudens Double Eagles, an 1870-S Silver Dollar (purchased by Western out of the Gilhouse sale for $62,500.00), 6 Panama-Pacific sets (now valued at more than $30,000.00 each), a Kellogg & Co. $50 slug (valued in excess of $80,000.00), 7 Four Dollar Gold Stellas (valued in excess of $10,000.00 each) plus countless other lesser rarities at auctions and coin shows. While your holding may not be as substantial as the above, if you have any better numismatic material, it will pay you to read the following.

WESTERN COIN EXCHANGE has recently created a new department for the sole purpose of procuring better numismatic material. WESTERN COIN EXCHANGE, established in 1962, is one of the world's largest coin companies. With an active mailing list of over 10,000 collectors and investors, and investment programs ranging to $100,000.00, our need for rare and choice coins is constant. We are in the position to offer you absolute TOP DOLLAR for your coins.

WESTERN COIN EXCHANGE is renowned throughout the industry for its UNQUIVOCABLE FINANCIAL REPUTATION and INTEGRITY. We have a rating with Dun and Bradstreet. We can offer you strong references with the Los Angeles office of SECURITY PACIFIC NATIONAL BANK, the Los Angeles office of AMERICAN CITY BANK, and the SWISS CREDIT BANK of Zurich, Switzerland. Selling to WESTERN COIN EXCHANGE means that there will be no unnecessary waiting. WE OFFER IMMEDIATE PAYMENT.

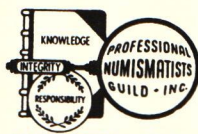

You may ship your coins to us via registered mail. Be sure to register the package for the full value of the contents. We ask that you include an invoice with your asking price. If we should have to return your coins, we will send them back immediately and, of course, we will pay the return postage. We can accept high value shipments on sight draft the Beverly Hills branch of American City Bank. Should you desire in-person negotiations, we will travel to your city at your convenience. All dealings are in strict confidence.

ROLL SET OF KENNEDY HALVES

- Do you know what a BU roll set of Barber Halves would be worth today — IF you could find one?
- Or how about a BU roll set of Liberty Walking Halves from 1916 to 1947?
- We do know that a short BU roll of Walking Liberty Halves from 1941 to 1947 sells for about $7,500.00
- Or how about the popular Franklin Half dollar series, a BU roll set of these is worth $4,000.00 today.

So we say why not get in on the ground floor now with a roll set of Kennedy Halves from 1964 to 1973. This roll set is sure to follow in the foot steps of its predecessors.

WE ARE OFFERING CHOICE ROLL SETS OF KENNEDY HALVES WITH ALL DATES AND MINTS AS FOLLOWS INCLUDING THE LOW MINTAGE 1970-D AND ALL PROOF ISSUES

1964 Silver	1968-D	1970-S Proofs	1972-D
1964-D Silver	1968-S Proofs	1971	1972-S Proofs
1965	1969-D	1971-D	1973
1966	1969-S Proofs	1971-S Proofs	1973-D
1967	1970-D	1972	1973-S Proofs

For a limited time only, we offer 1 each of the 20 rolls, BU and PROOF for only

$950.00

That price may seem high to most, but remember with a roll set you have 20 individual sets. Also the Kennedy Half series is now 10 years old and due for some big advances upward in price. Check your Red Book, or trends and see what a single complete set lists for.

CASH ADVANCE

THAT'S RIGHT!!!! We will advance a percentage of the fair retail value of your collection immediately upon receipt. Please send inventory first — do not send coins until you hear from us. We will then sell your collection at one of our forthcoming auction sales and you will receive your final settlement with 30 days after the sale. Our commission rates are always reasonable.

During the time that your coins are in our possession, they are stored in our protected and insured vaults. When you receive your advance check, if for any reason you are not satisfied with the amount of the check, just return it and your coins will be returned postpaid.

In many cases, our advance will be almost equal to other offers of outright purchase.

If you are not currently on our mailing list, just drop us a postcard with your full name and address and we will place your name on our catalog mailing list.

REMEMBER — It is not too late to have your collection included in our next outstanding auction sale.

OUR SALES ARE USUALLY HELD IN THE PARKER HOUSE

We are always in need of desirable numismatic material and will be happy to travel anywhere in the world to acquire it — either for auction or for outright purchase provided the value of the material warrants it.

NO COLLECTION IS TOO LARGE — We will furnish bank references upon request.

SOUND ADVICE IS WORTH THE PRICE

You CAN buy experience! Ours. Now, in our 45th year as professional numismatists, we are helping more and more collectors and dealers, too, with their numismatic problems.

Be it buying or selling, estate planning or taxes, or just plain sound advice, the problems are coming to the "doctor," the professional's professional.

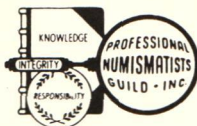

It takes a long time to chalk up 45 years of experience. We have it and you can reap the benefits. It may well be your best numismatic investment.

Follow the leader

Most of us at one time or another have played "follow the leader," a children's game in which a designated individual performs various feats of skill and dexterity, which others are challenged to mimic.

For coin collectors, following the leader is not a child's game. It requires taking a realistic look at the monthly coin publications and determining which one really fulfills the needs of its readers.

We've been publishing coin periodicals for more than 20 years — COINS magazine for 12 years — and feel we can offer our readers more of what they're looking for, and need to get more and better enjoyment out of the fascinating, ever changing hobby of coin collecting.

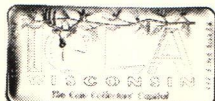

We've got more to offer you each issue than any other coin collecting monthly . . . more pages (COINS has averaged 138 pages per issue over the last six months!) . . . more colorful editorial pages . . . more services: SIGN IN, where our readers have a chance to voice their opinions, pro or con; COLLECTOR QUERIES, where answers are provided for any question any reader might have on any coin collecting subject . . . more world coin news, including features on foreign coins and illustrated listings of the latest new coin releases from around the world . . . more up-to-date coin prices are listed in our TELE-QUOTES section . . . more news coverage, both U.S. and foreign, plus the current Canadian and U.S. mint reports, foreign exchange rates . . . plus recent book and medal releases, and a listing of coin shows throughout the country.

All these MORES, coupled with a diversified selection of informative articles authored by prominent, knowledgeable writers and advertising by reputable dealers, make COINS the leader among monthly coin collecting periodicals.

Find out for yourself that what we're saying is true. Subscribe today and FOLLOW THE LEADER.

is no
lucky
number!

It takes a lot more than luck to sell over five million dollars worth of rare coins at public auction sales
...In just one year!

a new record in rare coins? sure!

But not by accident. That much auction volume; handled by one organization — with its own staff under a single roof — is the result of a lot of painstaking, professional effort.

It's the kind of effort that has made STACK'S the acknowledged leader in public coin auctions. No other numismatic firm can offer its clients the same unexcelled facilities, the same reputation for integrity, the same expert staff in every area of numismatics, the same unbroken record of success in its public auctions. No other numismatic firm can offer the depth of experience — the same personal, skilled services — the same total numismatic knowledge.

If you are considering the sale of a coin collection; talk to STACK'S. Discover the practical advantages of doing business with the very best.

WE NEED YOUR COINS

To satisfy the demands for quality material for our investment program and rapidly increasing mail business, and we'll pay Today's prices to get them. The basic areas we deal in and need are:

ANCIENT GREEK & ROMAN RARE UNITED STATES COINS WORLD CROWNS & TALERS

As regards the last, a few months back, we used as an example one of the areas we need, Austrian 25 & 50 Shilling commemoratives in proof, and stated that we would pay 5% over the highest buy price you could find in any of the coin magazines. Well, this was not just a one time offer, nor is it confined to the area we used as the example. It still goes; just try us! Immediate full payment goes without saying.

In addition to the three main groups, there are several side areas for which we have customers, such as uncirculated Canadian and Mexican type coins, French gold 20 franc type in the best conditions possibly, and English Shillings by type. Also, in gold and silver, the coins of Napoleon and his family, and in ancient gold and silver, the coins of Alexander and his generals. Incidentally, for those of you who are looking for a new area of interest, I cannot think of anything more rewarding, both in the coins themselves, and as an investment. These areas are rising steadily, but it can still be said that "They haven't done anything yet!" Those of you who are interested in these areas please drop us a line and tell us your needs.

2. Germany & German States Talers, crowns, and rare minors from 1500 to date.
3. Austria talers, crowns, and rare minors from 1500 to date. We especially need to purchase all 25 & 50 Schilling in choice Proof and we can pay top dollar. Please write.
4. Early French crowns and scarce minors from 1400 to date.
5. Italian and Italian States crowns, and scarce minors.
6. All better Oriental crowns and minors. Paying very competitive prices. Please write.
7. All better crowns and minors from Portugal, Azores, Madeira, Angola, Mozambique, Guinea. Paying over Craig, Yeoman, and Krause. Please write.
8. Especially needed - Talers, crowns, and scarce minors from Belgium, Denmark, Finland, Netherlands, Norway, Sweden, Luxembourg, and Switzerland.

If your entire collection is for sale, we purchase it intact. Generally speaking, we want to buy only choice collections or single coins with a retail value of over $10 each.

If your holdings warrant, we will travel to inspect and purchase your collection. We always pay competitive prices for choice material. All we want is a chance to make an offer. Why deny yourself maximum return on your investment? When shipping, please wrap securely. Send all packages insured or registered airmail. Payment within 24 hours after receipt. Thank you.

SELL YOUR RARE COINS AT THE 1974 A.N.A. AUCTION

Paramount International Coin Corporation is pleased to announce that for a record NINTH time, we have been selected to conduct the prestigious American Numismatic Association Auction. The 1974 A.N.A. Convention will be held at Bal Harbour, Florida, from August 13-18 and is certain to be the best ever! Each year, the A.N.A. not only draws thousands of collectors and dealers from all over the world, but it also brings out the major numismatic rarities which are usually available only once in a lifetime.

If you have rare or high grade coins you wish to sell, why not sell them at the 1974 A.N.A. Auction? We know that when you are selling your collection, you want top dollar. It is our business to see that you get the most money possible from the sale of your coins.

Consider these ten points when selling at a Paramount conducted auction:

- 1 — We print a quality illustrated catalogue.
- 2 — We offer a Protective Auction Contract.
- 3 — Your coins are fully insured.
- 4 — All material is well represented.
- 5 — All coins are accurately described by our experienced Auction Department.
- 6 — We give special attention to rarities.
- 7 — We have a large, active mailing list.
- 8 — We offer reasonable commission rates.
- 9 — There are no hidden charges.
- 10 — You receive a prompt settlement in full.

For full information about selling your coins in this sale, please call or write David W. Akers, Vice-President, Marketing at 513-836-2654 collect. We must stress that space is limited in this year's A.N.A. Auction and the absolute deadline for submitting consignments is June 1. Remember, Paramount has an unexcelled record for getting top prices for rare coins through auction. Why not consign your coins and see for yourself? Contact David W. Akers today!

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

The Numismatic Gallery, Inc. is moving! We will open our new offices in Pikesville, Maryland on March 1st, 1974. We will be carrying an even broader range of coins than we have had in the past; however, our major emphasis will continue to be coins of very high rarity and condition. If you are planning to visit us and can make an appointment, we can try to have on hand the coins in which you are most interested — but, you will be most welcome with or without an appointment. As always, we are interested in purchasing Rare Coins or collections in any price range. We hope you will give a visit to the NUMISMATIC GALLERY, INC. top priority on your next trip to Baltimore!

FOREIGN COINS — Our Want List

ANCIENTS

Roman, Greek in all metals — single pieces in very fine or better condition. If its a collection your selling us we will buy it all not just the better pieces.

MEDIVAL

We have a particular interest in Italian, Spanish and French pieces.

GERMAN TALERS

We have a reputation of paying extremely high prices in the European auctions.

HOLY ROMAN EMPIRE

Common pieces in only choice condition, the rare ones in very fine or better condition.

ITALIAN STATES

All pieces gold, silver and coppers in Fine or better condition.

SWISS CANTONS

Anything especially the gold coins.

MODERN CROWNS

In quantity only.

PROOF SETS

Modern types in quantity, pre 1940's especially wanted.

WEIMAR COMMEMORATIVES

We will pay more for these than our German colleagues.

ENGLAND

Crowns, 5 Guinea pieces, patterns and Proof Sets — we will pay $2500.00 for a choice Cromwell Crown.

SOUTH AMERICA

All crowns in choice condition, gold coins in extra fine or better condition.

SCANDINAVIA

If you have a choice piece, please ship it.

RUSSIA

Crowns and minors in choice condition, Gold in extra fine or better condition and all novedels.

CHINA

We will try to pay higher prices than our colleagues.

JAPAN

We are still buying these although this market is depressed.

EUROPEAN MINORS

From about 1850 to 1925, Italy, Belgium, Netherlands, Sweden, Switzerland, and Norway. Key dates in fine or better condition, common dates in extra fine or better condition.

PAPER NOTES

If you think it is rare, will probably buy it. We have a keen interest in printer's proof specimen notes.

If you are deciding to sell, whether a single piece or a collection give us a call or send us a letter. You'll like the way we do business. If you decide to ship anything, please send it by registered mail; the postage will be on us. Thank You.

NOT ALL COINS ARE WORTH THE PRICE

Most coin dealers and collectors you know want to sell you genuine, unaltered collectible coins. But all too often the coins are counterfeit or have been altered to appear to be a rare type. For example, many 1916 dimes have had "D" mintmarks added to increase their value by $100 to $500. The same alteration has been made on thousands of 1909-S VDB cents, 1892 and 1893-S dollars, and 1942 over 1 dimes. The targets of the counterfeiters and coin alterers are virtually unlimited.

In 1972 the ANA opened its certification service, which is totally devoted to one purpose: protecting you from buying bad coins. Protect yourself by having ANA Certification Service (ANACS) examine your "key" coins soon after you buy them. If they are good, the coins are worth more because you offer a photographic certificate of genuineness with them when you sell them. But if your coins are bad, you have ANA behind you as you request refund on your purchase.

Is ANACS always right? In 98.5% of the cases it is! And if you have serious reason to question ANACS's findings, the staff will be happy to re-examine your coin at no cost to you!

In a letter or on an ANACS "Request for Certification" form, give the following information:

Your name and address (plus ZIP)

Description of coin(s) to include country, date, denomination, metal, and other data (condition, etc.) which you wish to state.

The value of the coin, if genuine. (Our insurance company must have a stated value to determine its liability. This is for your protection as well as ours.)

Enclose a check or money order (payable to ANACS) to cover the costs of authentication, based on your stated value of the coin and on the return postal costs.

Compute as follows:

(1) Coin Value	Service Fee
$ 0 — $150	$6.00
151 — 300	9.00
301 — 500	12.00
Over $500 ...	3% of stated value

If an ANA member, state your membership number and deduct 10% of the base fee.

(2) Postage and insurance for return. When you mail your coins to ANACS, add to your remittance the approximate amount of return postage as determined by your post office clerk. ANACS doesn't challenge return postage fees as long as they are reasonably accurate.

SIMPLE AS A-B-C! Prepare coin for shipment, provide data on you, your coins and their values, and enclose check for service fee (plus return postage and insurance). It's all explained above.

GERMAN, SCANDINAVIAN, SWISS

Berkshire has expanded! A truly fine selection of choice German, Scandinavian and Swiss crowns and minors appear on our new fixed price list.

As established specialists in Oriental, Arabic, and Russian coins, we feel you will appreciate the unusual and extensive offerings that appear as always, in addition to the European coins, on our latest list. We have not neglected our loyal customers who seek the coins of:

CHINA, JAPAN, ARABIC NATIONS & RUSSIA

As always, we offer coins from scarce crowns to common minors at competitive prices. We suggest that you write for this important list today, to assure that you receive our initial mailing.

To maintain our large and varied selection,

WE WANT TO BUY:

- Better Chinese crowns and minors.
- Better Arabic Nations coins.
- Pre-Meiji Japanese coins.
- Scarcer Chinese banknotes.
- Czarist Russia: Better crowns and minors.

Berkshire is paying top dollar for items in the above areas, from a single $10.00 coin to an entire collection or accumulation of $100,000. Write or ship for our immediate cash offer. If your holdings warrant, we will travel to buy, confidentially, of course.

SEABY OF LONDON

Yes! We may be based a few miles away across the water but we're pretty mobile. In fact, our experts travel to America five or six times a year to visit clients and buy collections.

We deal in world coins — ancient, medieval and modern. Do you have coins for sale? Being on Europe's doorstep we have many continental contacts and can pay top prices for choice material. Before disposing of your coins too hastily, why not write to and let us know what you have?

We purchase coins for CASH. We sell coins on COMMISSION. We catalogue collections for AUCTION either in London or New York. We have a team of experts qualified to make the most of your coins. Drop us a line!

Bert Seaby, Peter Seaby, Lawrence Brown, Frank Purvey and others from the Seaby establishment will be travelling around the States this year. You may be on our route or persuade us to make a detour!

Send for a list of our numismatic publications and a copy of our monthly COIN & MEDAL BULLETIN. And if there are coins you are particularly wanting — let us know!

THE AMERICAN BICENTENNIAL MEDALLION

The story of America appears on this significant Bicentennial Medal. A magnificent Liberty carries the torch and laurel wreath on the obverse. In the background is a cannon, reminiscent of the heroic struggle for freedom, as well as Independence Hall, indicative of the Constitution. A plowman takes us back to the struggle of the pioneers, while smoke rising from a factory signifies our present industrial might. The reverse features the American Eagle, poised for flight, peaceful yet ever watchful, and the Liberty Bell, reproduced in minute detail.

The monthly coin lists which have been coming out these twenty-five years will dwindle to one or two a year, since private treaty now accounts for most of what I buy and sell.

The focus of my interest remains as always on good earlier crowns. For informed discussion and impartial advice on the marketing of this kind of material you may find it worthwhile to consult me.

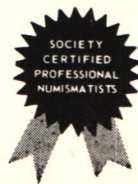

Prospective buyers will discover that sometimes I can winnow the elusive needle out of the haystack.

DON'T SELL YOUR COINS

Until you have checked with us. Not only are we paying top prices but we are interested in buying complete collections and not just the key coins from your collection.

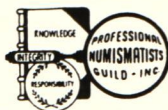

Our retail store and mail order business leave us with a constant need for all U.S. Material from Colonials to Silver Dollars. We are also buyers of rolls, Bulk Silver, and Franklin Mint material.

In addition to top prices we also are proud of the fast buying service we have available. We can be at your home or bank within 24 hours if your holdings warrant, or if you would, just mail your coins insured to us for our offer and fast check. We have purchased over 97% of all coins sent to us over the past 10 years.

No collection too large or too small to be of interest to us. All dealings are quick and confidential.

The capture of Antioch by the Crusaders on June 3, 1098 brought an end to their harmonious relations with Byzantium and also brought out a rivalry between the leaders of the Crusade. A bitter quarrel arose between Raymond of Toulouse and Bohemund for possession of the city, with the latter proving successful and setting himself up as an independent ruler. His new principality was at odds with both Byzantium and the Turks as it was a vital center for both empires. Bohemund soon realized he could not fight both at once, and leaving his nephew Tancred in Antioch he returned to the West to launch an attack against Byzantium. In October, 1107 Bohemund landed at Avlona with a large force but was dealt a brushing defeat by the Byzantine emperor Alexius, who forced the Norman prince to become his vassal. However Tancred refused to recognize this treaty and at Bohemund's death in 1111 remained in sole possession of Antioch.

The hoard here offered is of billion deniers of Bohemund IV (1203-1216 and 1218-1233), a successor of these Norman Crusaders. The obverse shows the mailed bust of Bohemund left, while the reverse has a cross with a crescent in the second quarter. Schlumberger Pl. III, 4. VF $7.50

HASTY SELLING VS. QUICK BORROWING

Selling your collection can be profitable if you have enough time to find the best prices. But a collection sold quickly is seldom sold profitably.

In any emergency, borrow the money you need at Edelman's. Use your collection as collateral and still retain complete ownership.

At Edelman's, you can obtain quick confidential loans for any amount up to 80% of the value of your properties — from $50 to $50,000 and more. Take as long as 30 months to pay with a repayment plan tailored to your specific needs. Your collection will be safely protected in Edelman's air-conditioned vaults until you reclaim it. SILVER BUY DIRECT & SAVE

For "solid" wealth many investors are turning to the "Letcher Eagle." It's ONE TROY OUNCE, PURE SILVER (.999). Each piece is larger than a dollar and certified as to weight and quality. Best of all, this form of silver can be purchased directly from The Letcher Mint at a cost only slightly higher than the New York spot price of silver on the day of purchase. For the first time, individuals as well as dealers can buy this convenient form of Pure Silver at reasonable bulk rates.

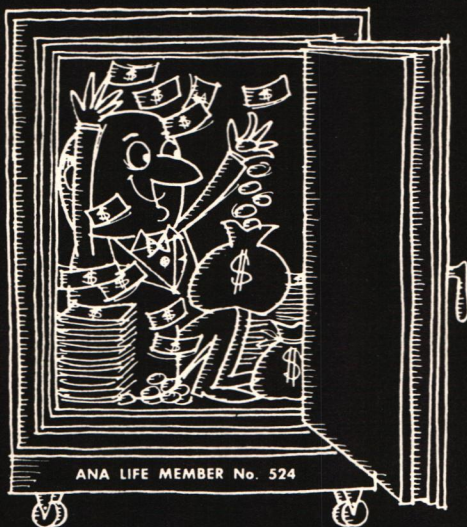

Price on a "per Troy Ounce" weight basis in bags, F.O.B. Mint at Lancaster, California:

1000 to 9999at 75c over N.Y. spot
10,000 to 50,000at 45c over N.Y. spot
over 50,000at 27c over N.Y. spot

Shipment generally will be made in less than a week's time via Air Freight, Rail Express or armored car service.

Douglas Robins, Inc. Is Buying...

If you are considering the sale of your numismatic holdings, whether a rare single item or a large collection, it will benefit you to contact us. We are particularly interested in collections consisting of primarily United States, Canadian or World coins retailing for a minimum of $10 each. We do not purchase coins for wholesale to other dealers, and can therefore offer you a better price for your coins.

Simply send us an itemized listing of your holdings, specifying date, variety, grade, price, and any other data pertinent to the value of your coins. If we feel we can meet your asking price, or if you would rather receive our maximum offer, we will arrange to inspect your holdings.

We need top grade coins and are willing to pay top prices. Our large retail business allows us to generally buy higher and sell lower than most dealers. Do not settle for less.

If You Are Buying....

If you are a serious collector of United States, Canadian, or World Coins, you will be interested in our catalog, "A Collector's Item." We maintain perhaps the finest inventory of choice and rare Canadian coins in existence, as well as a wide selection of desirable United States and World issues, all priced competitively to represent fine values. Request a copy of our catalog. You will receive one with our compliments.

Dare To Be Different

You may own that new sports car and you may have the latest in four-channel sound systems and yes, you may even own that twin engine plane — But look around you . . . lots of people do, so how different can you be?

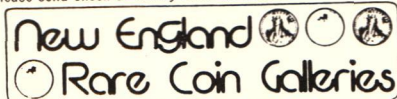

If you're looking for something really unique—Something that will set you apart from the crowd. We've got the answer.

A U.S. Mint Coin Die — that's right, the things they make your money with, it's something everyone will want to own — But can't. You see, there are only 4,500 available in the entire world. (Have you checked the latest figures on how many people own four-channel sound systems?)

These coin dies are perfectly legal to own, because the Mint Authorities have defaced them so that they may no longer be used for coin production. When the supply is exhausted there'll be no more because the Mint Authorities have spent about $50,000 on equipment to melt all future dies. Thus, no more can ever be made available to the public. Not next year — not ever. Think of the value of one ten years from now!

You may purchase a single die for $24.00 or a set of 10 for $225.00 postpaid, a certificate of authenticity is included with each die. All coin dies sold on a 100% money back guarantee, if not satisfied within 10 days.

Please send check or money order or write for more details to:

MEDALS

Highest prices paid for all well preserved medals from PORTUGAL, BRAZIL & SPAIN in gold-silver-bronze from the earliest periods to 1840. Some of the later ones also wanted.

This includes all so-called "Proclamation-pieces" issued by the spanish kings in Spain and LATIN AMERICA. I also buy coins from these countries prior to 1900.
